SPARKS SAYS HE LEFT COMMITTEE TO AVERT ACTIONDidn't Want Wage Bill Reported Until Others
Were Heard.Supporters of Bill Charge That Chairman Is Kidnapped By Foes.

Columbus, Feb. 17.—Senator W. E. Sparks of Dayton, chairman of the senate labor committee who suddenly disappeared from a meeting of the labor committee last night after a motion had been made to recommend for passage the woman's minimum wage bill, explained today that the reason for his leaving was that he was not ready for the committee to act in the bill.

"There are other parties who desire to be heard on this measure," said Senator Sparks, "and we are going to give them an opportunity to be heard on their side."

Senator Sparks said he believed the bill would be reported out favorably by the committee after a full hearing.

Sparks charged that an attempt was made to "railroad" the bill through the committee last night following the public meeting.

Senator Reynolds, author of the bill and other members of the committee ready to vote on it last night charged that Sparks had been "kidnaped" from the meeting of the committee after a motion had been made and seconded to report it for passage. Action on the bill had to be postponed last night because of Sparks' absence. The senate public utilities committee today recommended for adoption the Lender resolution calling for the appointment of a joint legislative committee to make a thorough investigation of the methods of gas production and distribution in Ohio. The resolution sets forth that there is great waste in the production of gas and that excessive profits have been made by the gas companies. The resolution was come up for action in the senate Monday.

The house committee on common schools today recommended for passage the Wenner bill providing for courses in physical education in the schools and creating a state supervisor of physical education in the department of public instruction.

The Cornell telephone bill requiring long distance telephone companies to make connections and give service to local mutual telephone exchanges was argued before the senate public utilities committee this morning.

The house temperance committee today recommended for passage the Bender bill requiring removal of screens from fronts of soft drink establishments. The house schools committee recommended the Wenner bill requiring teaching of physical education in the public schools.

A bill proposing a four year term for county clerks was introduced in the senate today by Atwood of Franklin. Present terms would not be extended. Senator Norton of Stark introduced a bill to increase jurors pay from two to three dollars per day. The bond bill making the same provision was defeated by the senate this week. It had already passed the house.

Two more adjoining rural school districts would be authorized to combine and centralize their schools by a bill introduced by Senator Miller of Muskingum county.

Both the senate and house were scheduled to adjourn this afternoon until Monday. Members of the house finance committee will leave Columbus this afternoon for Cincinnati where they will be engaged in the session of the Longview hospital. Members of the senate finance committee will leave Columbus tomorrow for Indian Lake, Lima and Bowling Green to inspect state property and consider appropriations for state institutions located at these places.

The first of the series of taxation measures intended to work a permanent solution of the taxation question in Ohio were unanimously passed by the lower branch of the state legislature yesterday. They now go to the senate where it is anticipated they also will be approved. The measures were the Griswold bill and constitutional amendment providing for debt limitations and the Taft bill permitting taxing districts to overstep the limitations of the Smith one percent law for a period of three years. The debt limitation proposals seek to establish a "pay as you go" system of management by limiting the issuance of bonds to pay current running expenses.

Among the bills introduced in the legislature yesterday were measures providing for a labor bureau and the application of Sunday motion picture shows introduced by Representative Taylor of Huron county; an Anti-Saloon League bill by Representative Gordon of Logan county; to give justices of the peace jurisdiction of minor civil cases; and to maintain authority to try liquor law violation cases.

Another measure, introduced by Representative McCoy of Adams county would prohibit profiteering in coal by licensing retail dealers and limiting their gross profits to 30 percent. Handling of coal by brokers would be prohibited.

The senate labor committee last night held a public hearing on the Reynolds bill creating a minimum wage commission and the establishment of minimum wages industry for women and children. A large number of proponents of the bill spoke, among them being Miss Jeannette Runkle, a former congress woman from Montana.

The house public utilities committee held a public hearing on the Weaver bill providing for repeal of the law requiring telephone companies to obtain a certificate of necessity from the public utilities commission before they may enter a field where another company already is operating. A number of attorneys representing telephone companies opposed the measure, asserting that 24 states now have laws requiring such certificates of necessity from all public utilities.

BOTTLERS CLOSE CONVENTION. Columbus, Feb. 17.—The annual convention of the Ohio Bottlers' Association will conclude its annual meeting here today with election of officers for the ensuing year and a business session. Walter Lowe, Cleveland, is scheduled to speak at one of the sessions.

EMIGRATION FROM ITALY SUSPENDED

Triest, Feb. 16.—Emigration from Central Europe to the United States has been suspended and the eastern frontiers of Italy have been closed, pending the cleaning up of the sanitary situation here.

CASE IS DISMISSED. Cincinnati, Feb. 17.—Herbert Seal who is said to have led the crowd that sought to break into the rooms of the Woman's City club, while Oswald Garrison Villard was speaking last Saturday, was dismissed by police court this morning where he was arraigned on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Attorney Guy Mallon. The attorney withdrew the charge and said he did not wish to prosecute because he believed Seal and his companions had been misled by a mistaken idea of patriotism.

AVIATOR SPENDS WEEK IN DESERT

Driven Down By Engine Trouble Pilot Finds Himself In Waste Land Far From Help.

Sanderson, Texas, Feb. 17.—A guard of soldiers kept intruders away from the hotel room where Lieutenant Alexander Pearson, Jr., had the first real rest since he left El Paso last Thursday on a flight in an army airplane to San Antonio.

"I'm in rags, face unshaven, worn out from exertions suffered in the air," said Pearson, "and I'm in a most desolate waste land, the 23 year old aviator rode into Sanderson last night on a horse borrowed from ranchers.

Less than three hours' flight from El Paso, he made a forced landing at Canon, some 95 miles from Sanderson, miles away from where communication and human habitation. For three days and nights he fought with engine trouble, and on the fourth day he struck the Rio Grande and floated down the stream on an improvised raft until he was discovered by ranchers who gave him food and shelter.

The 65 army aviators who had combed Texas in search for him since last Friday, had almost given up hope.

Lieutenant Pearson was on his way from Douglas, Arizona, then to Florida to make an attempt at a transcontinental flight in 24 hours on Washington's birthday.

A strong north wind drove the aviator from his course and then his engine choked, stopped before he could choose a landing and damaged the wings on striking the ground.

The trip back to civilization was made part of the time, through a terrific sandstorm.

ONLY 3 CABINET POSTS UNFILLED

Harry M. Daugherty Places Before President, Information Gathered On Trip To New York and Washington.

St. Augustine, Florida, Feb. 17.—A variety of problems that must be solved before inauguration today were gone over by President-elect Harding with Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio, who managed his campaign for the nomination last spring and who is expected to sit in his cabinet at attorney general.

The first makeup of the cabinet itself occupied first place in their consultation. Mr. Daugherty laying before his chief a budget of information and advice gathered during a two weeks trip to New York, Washington and other eastern cities.

The only cabinet posts not yet virtually assigned are the secretaryship of the navy, commerce and labor, each of which involves considerations that make a choice difficult.

RAIL EMPLOYEES GET RAISES OF WAGE BOARD

Chicago, Feb. 17.—A recess of one month in the hearing before the railroads commission on the application of the agreement for abrogation of the application of the agreement was asked today by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Jewell said the unions needed until March 1 to prepare their rebuttal testimony.

STATES CHALLENGE RIGHT OF L. C. C.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Nineteen states will join with Wisconsin in challenging before the supreme court Feb. 23 the right of the interstate commerce commission to regulate railroad rates under the transportation act, it was announced today after a two days' conference here of attorney generals of 12 states.

HOWAT DEFIANT AS SENTENCE IS PASSED

Pittsburgh, Kansas, Feb. 17.—Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas miners' union, sentenced yesterday to serve a year in jail for contempt of court, in calling a strike in violation of an injunction, today issued a statement defying the Kansas industrial court and Judge A. Cuyler who sentenced him.

FOOTBALL STAR IS BACK.

Columbus, Feb. 17.—Lloyd "Butch" Pixley, former Ohio State University football team guard, will probably be in the Buckeye eleven lineup next fall. He was ejected from the university today. Pixley was Walter Camp's third all-American choice for guard in 1919. Last fall he entered Princeton.

AUTO ENTRIES CLOSED.

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 17.—Entries are closed today for the spring automobile championship to be run at the Los Angeles speedway next Wednesday, nine drivers having entered. They are Tommy Milton, Alton Soules, Ralph DePalma, John A. Thiele, Ira Vail, Roscoe Sargent, Eddie Miller, Jimmy Murphy and Eddie Hearne.

BOY IS ELECTROCUTED.

Cleveland, Feb. 17.—Peter Charley, an eleven year old school boy, met a tragic death yesterday while playing with other boys in front of Luna Park. The boy was climbing the eight foot fence surrounding the park when he grasped an iron support with one hand and an electric light bulb with the other. The glass bulb broke in his hand and his flesh came in contact with the bare connected wires, the shock knocking him to the ground. He died on his way to an hospital.

HALF MILLION IN LOOT TAKEN BY TOLEDO BANDITS

Police Find Machine Used By Mail Robbers Early Today.

Posses Search Countryside For Men Who Steal Registered Mail.

Toledo, Feb. 17.—Police have recovered a stolen automobile used by bandits in holding up four employees of the Toledo postoffice early this morning and stealing nine sacks of valuable mail. No clue as to the identity of the robbers has been obtained.

The mail sacks, four of them containing registered mail amounting in value to hundreds of thousands of dollars, were thrown into the stolen car after the bandits forced the postal employees to lie on the floor.

The mail was just arrived at the loading platform when the bandits drove alongside the truck. Two of them quickly covered the employees while the others obtained the loot.

The bandits fled hotly pursued by postal agents and police.

Postal employees admitted that the loot may total nearly a half million dollars. Police claim that the loss in property alone may be between $300,000 and $400,000.

Sheriff's posse, police squads and postal inspectors are scouring the countryside hoping to find the mail sacks and robbers.

Sheriff Jack Taylor with a posse of citizens has surrounded a number of places at Point Place six miles north of here, in search for the bandits.

The men held up were Charles Miller, postal clerk, Paul Felrich and Joseph Hughes, railway postoffice clerk, respectively.

The mail had just been removed from an incoming train at union station and about to be carried into the postoffice by a messenger.

The robbers drove up in their automobile and forced the clerks to lie face downward on the pavement.

Four minutes elapsed from the time the robbers drove up to the postoffice until they had seized the sacks and were on their way.

The stolen mail was from eastern points and Cleveland, according to Postoffice Inspector Blake, who took possession of the sacks.

The robbers are thought to have been at the railway station when the train bearing the mail sacks arrived and followed the truck to the postoffice.

The robbers were conveyed to the postoffice in charge of Joseph Hughes, truck driver, W. H. Milroy, postoffice clerk, and Paul Felrich, railway postal transfer clerk. These men reported that as they were pulling up to the postoffice platform, a platoon of five men alighted from a Studebaker car, covered them with pistols and forced them to throw up their hands.

Two of the bandits, according to the mail clerk, were armed with pistols and threw the sacks into the waiting car. The bandits then sped away.

Within a few minutes an alarm had been spread by police. Detectives made an attempt to locate the mail, but it had been unloaded and thrown the sacks into the waiting car. The bandits then sped away.

Postoffice authorities early today had made an attempt to estimate the amount of loot taken, but it continued to be reported that the swag would amount to $400,000 in federal reserve currency. Postoffice inspectors were busy searching the city for possible clues and announced that a statement would come later as to the amount of the money taken.

So far the police and federal operatives have obtained no trace of the men who sped away in a stolen motor car after seizing six mail pouches.

The post office employees have been closely questioned. Hughes and Felrich say they were covered with weapons and were about to take the pouches into the postoffice.

START BASEBALL PRACTICE.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Feb. 17.—Fifty students answered the first baseball call at the University of Michigan today and a score of others are expected to get into practice with the beginning of the new semester next week. Coach Derrill Pratt said today he was highly pleased with the turnout.

The football team, which is now in camp and Jack Herrin are among the veterans already in training. Pratt announced that shortly Myraz, who played third base in 1918 and led all western conference batters had been declared ineligible.

THERE ARE BIGGER THAN
JOE BROWNFIELD'S MELONS

Washington, Feb. 17.—One hundred and ten pound watermelons—these have been in Egypt. Consular reports say so and consular never err. But they keep 'em at home. There is no export business.

The consul at Alexandria noted that melons in the market there, all weighing 10 to 15 pounds and varying in price from 20 cents to $1.50. He also noted that while they were just "wattah-melons" they had been given funny names such as "patkikh" and "nims" and "affawi" and that only two melons grow to the plant.

TARIFF BILL IS THROUGH SENATE

Upper House Ready to Move On to Consideration of Appropriation Bills and Other Matters.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The key log had been knocked out of the legislative jam in congress today through passage of the Fordney emergency tariff bill. The way was now opened in the senate, where the congress is centered, for consideration of the big appropriation measures.

There is renewed hope that congress might be able to comply with the desire of President-elect Harding as expressed in messages to the senate and house leaders that all of the appropriation measures be enacted at this session. Others, however, were not so hopeful and said they expected lengthy discussion in the senate when the army and navy supply measures come up.

The unfinished business before the senate today. The agriculture and diplomatic appropriation measures have been reported and are on the waiting list. The army, navy, deficiency and fortification bills are being considered by senate committees. Five of the 16 big money measures—the Indian, District of Columbia, pension, legislative and sundry civil bills—have been passed and now are in conference.

DEMOCRATS TALK REORGANIZATION

Chairman White and Members of the Executive Committee Assemble in Washington For Important Meeting.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Reorganization of the Democratic party machinery preparatory to the congressional campaign of 1922 and the presidential campaign of 1924 were the topics for discussion at the meeting here today of Chairman George White of the Democratic National committee and members of the executive committee of 12 which he recently appointed.

Whether the reorganization should be effected by the executive committee or be placed before a meeting of the full membership of the national committee was an issue to be decided. Chairman White in calling today's meeting indicated that in his opinion the reorganization should be brought about through action by the executive committee. Thomas B. Love, Democratic National committeeman from Texas, however, recently announced that he had obtained the signatures of 59 of the 106 members of the national committee to a petition asking that Chairman White call a meeting of the full committee for March at St. Louis or some other central city to consider reorganization.

Mr. Love and Robert W. Woolley, former interstate commerce commissioner and now in charge of the petition had been invited to present their views at today's meeting and in as much as several members of the executive committee were understood to favor Mr. Love's proposal a warm discussion of the question was in order.

The Democratic congressional committee meeting last night adopted a resolution declaring that in the opinion of that body there was no necessity for a meeting of the entire national committee. The congressional committee also went on record as favoring retention of Mr. White as national chairman. Mr. Love and his associates have been accused but have attempted to deny the charge of attempting to depose Mr. White.

Chairman White had announced that he would submit at today's meeting a comprehensive program relating to the future activities of the party. Details of the program had not been disclosed when the executive committee went into session.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

The members of the Harmonious club were entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. B. Keller, in Ninth street. The conclusion of the meeting a two-course dinner was served.

Mrs. George Weaver entertained the members of her bridge club at her home in Hudson avenue Thursday afternoon. The club souvenir was awarded Mrs. Harry Doane, while the guest trophy was received by Mrs. Carl Swisher. Luncheon was served the members and several guests.

On Thursday evening at her home, in Charles street Mrs. R. A. Hutchins entertained the members of her bridge club. The game concluded with the guest trophy being awarded Mrs. H. K. Smith, while the club prize was received by Mrs. Fred Palmer. The guests of the club were Mrs. Stewart Sedgwick, Mrs. Wayne Anderson, Mrs. Floyd Adams, Mrs. H. K. Smith and Miss Edythe Hall.

A mothers and daughters banquet was given by the Women's Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian church at the church Thursday evening. The decorations were suggestive of the Valentine season, and about one hundred guests were entertained. The speaker for the evening was Mrs. Alfred Cheney of Mexico, wife of the missionary, who is supported by the Second Presbyterian church in Mexico. Co-incident with the plan for a mothers and daughters meet, Mrs. Cheney had her two year old daughter with her. She told of their experiences and of Mexican home life.

Each mother brought as her guest her daughter, a young woman adopted for the evening.

The Women's Music club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Franklin, and an interesting afternoon was spent listening to a reading of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Prof. E. P. Johnson of Granville. The incidental music by Mendelssohn was played by Miss Besie Larkin, except the wedding march which was rendered by Mrs. William Tucker and Miss Anna Riegger. Prof. Johnson has a pleasing voice and his different intonations made each character stand out distinctly, while his sense of humor was irresistible. Miss Larkin was at her best in this dainty music, which made a fine setting for the reading. Two numbers by the Music club chorus under the direction of Miss Doomey were very pleasing.

O. C. Larason of Locust and Sixth streets is observing his birthday anniversary today. His children, Ed M. Larason, Mrs. D. B. Bell of this city and Mrs. W. V. Davis of near Jacksonville are with him for dinner.

The fifth dance of the Masonic Dance club will be held on Washington's Birthday, February 22, at the Temple. No dinner will be served at this dance but lunch will be served in the balcony at 10:30. Dancing will start promptly at 8:30 and continue until 2 o'clock. Those who do not have season tickets tickets before Monday evening as no tickets will be sold on the day of the dance or at the door. The members of the club are looking forward to March 15th dance when an entertainment rivaling that of New Year's eve, will be given with a big dinner at 6:35 o'clock.

The Review club will meet in the ladies parlor of the First Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. A. H. Marple was hostess to the Independent Circle Tuesday it being the annual winter picnic. Two long tables were beautifully arranged, the color scheme being red and white. At 12 o'clock 25 members and guests were served dinner. The afternoon was spent in music and readings. Mrs. Atherton was the lucky member for the month. The guests of the circle were Mrs. Samuel Brooks, Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Cramer, Miss Laura Watts and Miss Lois Marple. The next meeting will be held Friday, March 11th with Mrs. E. E. Moore at her home in 44 North Buena Vista street.

The Friendship class, No. 13 of the East Main Street U. B. Cunday school, gave a Valentine party at the home of its president, Carl Andrews in 23 Wing street, Monday night. The guests were members of classes Ten and Eleven. Those present were Rev. P. E. Wright and family, Misses Mabel Anderson, Blanche Williams, Stella Roach, Velma Harter, Hattie Anderson, Jesse Jones, Grace Riley, Nellie Davis, Agatha Crossley, Grace Pine, Mary Amstrong, Thelma Plummer, Betty Scott, Mamie Scott, Matilda Beard, Elizabeth Livingston, Fern Plummer, Grace Loughman, Lola Davis, Leora Jones, Vera Straw, Katharine Wolfe, Edith Quigley, Mabel Neilson, Clarabel Colville, Eleanor Koehler, Leona Borroway, and Deiores Andrews and Mrs. D. Andrews; Messrs. Paul Harter, Floyd Mason, Raymond Cheno, Walter Richardson, James Wolfe, Melvin Stoffer, Paul Shipin, Harry Andrews, Raymond Wilson, Earl Phillips, Orville Baughman, Earl Inlow, E. Ivan Grey, Joe Coulter, George Pugh, Paul Denman, and the host.

The office employees of the Burke Golf company enjoyed a picnic luncheon Tuesday, celebrating St. Valentine's day. The tables were prettily decorated and each one was seated by place cards and the favors were small sacks of candy for the women. Music and a Valentine box were the amusements for the noon hour.

Those who enjoyed the two course dinner were: Misses Lula Swartz, Frances Bahton, Irma Myers, Helen Mazy, Frances Rutledge, Mildred Holler, Mrs. Beatrice, Elliott, Florence Coffman, Messrs. W. K. Wobbeke, W. C. Sherwood, E. J. Brelsford, C. C. Broome, Frank Graham, Norvil Cook, Earl Canfield and Sam Holler.

The Athenian noon day luncheon was held Thursday in the domestic science rooms of the high school, instead of the regular meeting place. A delicious luncheon, prepared by the domestic science department, was served at 12 o'clock. After the program, H. F. Moninger gave an address on the value of real education.

Mr. Frank Tafel of Wittenberg University who was to address the class was unable to be present as Wittenberg is under quarantine. He will talk to the class at a luncheon to be arranged in the future.

A Valentine party will be given to the boys and girls of the main department of the Bible school of the Second Presbyterian church this evening at 7 o'clock.

The Second social group of the Second Presbyterian church will entertain the members of the congregation and friends with a George and Martha Washington social on Tuesday evening of next week in the parlors of the church.

Mrs. O. P. Dorn entertained with a valentine masquerade Monday evening. The evening was spent with music, dancing and a delicious dinner. Following guests, Misses Ruth and Agnes Schollar, Nellie Teagardner, Clara Vanderbark, Irene Winters, Ethel Leand, Bernice Walcott, Freda Hendren, Ruth Tanner, Ruby Dearnitt, Mary Dorn, Mrs. Mary Atherton, Mrs. Guy Faust and daughter Rosa Belle and Mrs. Dorn.

The marriage of Miss Marie Jackson and Mr. Wesley Arthur Smith was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning at the parsonage of the First M. E. church, Rev. I. G. McCormick officiating. The ring service of the Methodist church was used. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home in Toledo.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Jackson of South Sixth street and for the past four years has been head of the notion department at the W. H. Mazy company. Mr. Smith is the son of G. C. Smith of Overbrook, Kas., and is employed at telegrapher for the Pennsylvania railroad at Toledo. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home in 423 Clark street, Toledo.

Milady's Boudoir

Beauty Sleep.

The girl who has an engagement of what she thinks bids fair to be of rare enjoyment, should endure her beauty by resting before going out. She should take at least eight hours sleep in every twenty four and should have, in addition, a short nap in the daytime. If she does not go to sleep easily when she retires, or does not sleep well, let her prepare a warm bath, not hot but just tepid, in which there shall be some of her favorite toilet water.

Rest in this for ten minutes, then sponge off with lukewarm water and rub the body well afterward. Then she will sink peacefully into the most restful of slumbers. Once she has jumped into her downy couch, pulled up the soft covers and inhaled deeply of the fresh air, she should sleep the sleep of the just and the happy. Of course your windows should be wide open at night, winter and summer, open at the top and bottom too.

Aside from resting the girl who wishes to gain her full share of beauty should drink plenty of pure, fresh water. This should be taken a glass at a time or more if wished, but only between meals. A large glass should be taken before breakfast and at hour intervals between the other meals. It will be found that the appetite will not be as vigorous, but this will be better for the whole system.

Some women, inclined to be stout think that a Turkish bath agrees with the system and is a sure aid to beauty of figure. One must, however, be sure that the treatment is not too severe and it is well to take the advice of some physician before taking with these baths.

Our Boys and Girls

Teach your child how to place her feet correctly from the first step. Then most careful in the selection of her shoes. Allow the baby in long clothes to go barefoot, unless you find that her feet are inclined to be cold. In such case have her wear little knitted socks. Let the first shoes be on the order of an Indian moccasin, and as the foot grows it should be fitted from tracings. Have the child stand on a piece of paper and trace the outline of her feet on the paper.

Use this as a guide when buying shoes and you will never make the mistake of getting the shoes too small or ill fitting. In winter provide high laced shoes as they can be adapted to all form of the foot better than buttoned ones. Never draw the shoe laces too tight as that will hamper the circulation.

TAFFETA AND ECRU
FROCK IS PRETTY
NEW COMBINATION

Black taffeta and ecru make a wonderful combination, as this afternoon frock proves. The scalloped skirt is one of the features that add to the beauty of the costume. Flat lace is also made to trim the frock, which is a Louis model.

TRUTH IN FABRIC BILL IS URGED TO PROTECT BUYER

Does Not Require to Use All Virgin Wool in Cloth.

Merely Requires Percentage of Adulterants to Be Labelled.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—American textile manufacturers have been so persistent in the use of re-worked rags in all wool cloth that they have caused a reduction of 2,800,000 in the sheep population in the last two years and of $50,000,000 in a decade. If a way is not found to get the public demand for virgin wool cloth back into touch with the wool growers, the continued reduction in the flocks will eventually produce a clothing situation worse than any experienced as a result of the World War.

This statement was made by Howard E. Greene, secretary of the National Sheep and Wool Bureau of America, while commenting on the opposition to the French-Capper truth in fabric bill expressed, according to the press, by Dr. E. W. France, director of the Philadelphia Textile School. In addressing the merchandising class conducted by the National Association of Retail Clothiers and the Pennsylvania Clothiers Association, Dr. France is reported as saying that, if textile manufacturers were compelled to use only pure virgin wool in clothing, the scarcity of the raw material would cause suits now costing $80 and $100 to jump to $200 that some fabrics produced from re-worked stocks are as good as, or better than, some virgin wool fabrics and that labeling would increase production costs and keep retailers busy explaining terms.

Dr. France, in calculating the virgin wool price increase, assumed that the world production would continue to be only a third of the amount needed to supply all demand for 20 million new wool. The shepherds need only fair inducement to increase their wool production. Today, when cloth made of virgin wool and cloth made of re-worked rags both sell as well wool to a public which requires that all wool means virgin wool, the shepherd must expect the severe competition of the re-worked every pound of wool he produces to meet 10 tons that there are four billion pounds of wool produced each year. If of unmanufactured virgin wool in the world's storehouses and that, with the coming spring clip, there will be nearly a billion pounds more supply in the recent rate of consumption in America. He knows that 50 per cent of the 1920 clip is unsold and that the prospects of selling the 1921 clip within a year are extremely slim.

"Such conditions are enough to destroy any industry. With the vision of a wool market falling and the cost of wool and labor high, it is not surprising that our sheep population diminished 1,752,000 in 1919 and 2,047,000 in 1920. Only those blinded by self-interest can shut their eyes to the significance of the reduction of more than 10 per cent in our sheep population in shoddy's most flourishing decade. This decrease is bound to go on as long as the lack of a labeling law permits unidentified shoddy to masquerade as virgin wool from the wool grower to the rag-picker, constantly abrogates the economic law of supply and demand. At the peak of war prices, the wool grower received only $4.50 for enough choice virgin wool to make a good weight suit. At present, he gets $1.50 for enough good virgin wool to make a medium weight suit. A few years more of discouragement and sheep husbandry will be so badly disintegrated that the security of virgin wool will be reflected in the clothing market. Shoddy will go up, also, as a result of the failure of its source of supply.

It must be remembered that the textile manufacturers of the whole world have entered into the shoddy conspiracy to use rags in place of virgin wool and that war conditions, droughts, etc., have played world sheep husbandry in too precarious a state to withstand so vast a burden. The sheep population has been reduced by millions everywhere and America has no assurance that she will be able to fall back upon foreign wool resources, when her own have been destroyed.

"What would be the effect of labeling? The cost would be only a fraction of a cent per yard of cloth, as was proved by competent testimony at the Congressional hearings on truth in fabric legislation last March. How could it require the constant explanation of technical terms? Virgin wool, shoddy, cotton and silk would be called such. Shoddy is the only term of the type that might be a technical term. Actually, the layman would experience no more trouble in explaining the term, shoddy, as clearly defined by law, than they have now when honestly trying to explain the technical term, 'all wool'.

Labels as to be in the law or the probability of a grade for grade, shoddy is not a grade of inferior wool, but shoddy is a grade of inferior wool, and it is a grade of inferior wool of inferior quality. Labeling would identify shoddy and virgin wool and give consumers a chance to test their quality and select on the cloth that wears best. Shepherds are willing to take a chance. Why aren't the shoddy people? If their product is so worthy? Because labeling would cause competition between shoddy and virgin wool with a range of prices and they would no longer be able to get virgin wool prices for old rag cloth.

Overworked.

"Talking about dry towns, have you ever been in Leavenworth, Kansas?" asked the commercial traveler in the smoking-car. "No?" Well, that's a 'dry' town for you, all right."

"They can't sell liquor at all, there," asked one of the men.

"Only if you have been bitten by a snake," said the traveler. "They have one yone snake in the town, and when I got to it the other day, after standing in line for nearly half the day, it was too tired to bite."—Evening Wisconsin.

USE NEW CHEMICAL.

TO KILL PEACH BORER.

Para-dichloro-benzene has been found to be a valuable chemical for destroying the peach tree borer, a serious pest in Ohio peach orchards, according to H. A. Gossard, entomologist of the Ohio Experiment Station.

The initial work with this chemical in an experimental way was done by the U. S. Department of Agriculture but its value has been demonstrated in Ohio.

Practically the only way to combat the peach tree borer in the past has been to dig out the pests with a sharp knife but now it is possible to use the chemical at the rate of three-fourths of an ounce on trees six years or older. It cannot be used on younger trees with safety.

The last week in August or before September 10 is regarded as an ideal time under Ohio conditions to treat peach trees for the borer.

The chemical is manufactured from coal tar products.

PROHIBITION THEME OF AMUSING PICTURE.

The new Bryant Washburn picture, "The Six Best Cellars," which is at the Alhambra theater for two days commencing Friday next, is up to the minute in theme. It treats humorously of Prohibition. The original story was by Holworthy Hall and Hugh Kahler. Mr. Washburn has the role of Henry Carpenter, member of an exclusive set is their well stocked cellars. Henry of young married couples, whose pride runs short just on the eve of a big party at which he is a host. Receiving Prohibitionist that several cases of liquor have been stored in his cellar by an errand half brother, now departed. Requested to destroy them, Henry removes the precious stuff to his own house. At the last moment he discovers that the bottles are empty. To save his face at the dinner, he launches into a fiery speech against King Alcohol. The Prohibitionist in the town welcomes him and wants to run him for Congress. But word comes from the Audit of another store of liquor discovered in her cellar. This time the bottles are full. What is Henry to do? Become a social light or go into poli-

Alhambra—Bryant Washburn in "The Six Best Cellars."
Grand—Olive Tell in "Wings of Pride."
Lyric—Rube Fulkerson's "Frolics of 1921."
Gem—Bride 13 and "Lurking Peril."

It is seldom that an attraction comes to this city direct from a run of two solid years in New York with a guarantee that this is the original production, scenery and costumes, guaranteed to be absolutely intact. There are fourteen dazzling, beautiful scenes in the new edition of "Nighty Night," in most of which the cutes chorus of Sixteen Sweet Sixteens disport themselves merrily. While the youngsters are rushing out of one costume into another, the twenty clever principals in the company prevent the audience from coming restless by appearing before a tableau curtain, singly and in pairs, and has for its star beautiful Olive Tell. Her supporting cast includes John O'Brien, Denton Vane, Edwards Davies, Faye Dean, Ida Pauls, Margaret Sedgwick and other well-known favorites. The story is of a young girl who is made to realize her real position in life and who then undertakes to help the District Attorney clean up a band of Crooked politicians through her own father is a tool of the leader. The photodrama is packed to overflowing with human interest, sensational scenes and real drama. Don't miss it.

BRILLIANT STAR GIVES A SCINTILLATING PERFORMANCE.
Margarita Fisher, in "The Gamesters," is not only good to look upon, but she does some acting. In the word comes from reviews and comments from all over the country. So practically the only woman character in the drama and she has things all her own way in a story which begins with a poker game which ends with a racket game which breaks the bank. Magnificent gowns and beautiful settings, West and East.

The Auditorium theater Saturday afternoon and evening, with the entire production as presented in New York and Chicago during the long run in those cities. This is the fifth and best of the New York Princess theater successes to date, and for those who are looking for a good long laugh, it will long be remembered as the most enjoyable play presented in years. Seldom has a play sprung into success and popularity more spontaneously than did "Nighty Night." The evening that it opened at the Princess theater in New York, the audience was on its feet cheering and the critics hailed it as the funniest play ever written. This success has followed it on tour in many cities where theaters are entirely sold out before the company arrives in town, for contrary to what the title suggests, "Nighty Night" is not a bedroom farce. It is a scream from start to finish, a scream of delight from the audience, and the great charm of the play is that the audience laughs without shame, for there is nothing objectionable to the finer sensibilities. Seats are now selling.

WILL ROGERS AT THE AUDITORIUM SUNDAY.
Will Rogers, who already is a most popular screen star, will come to the Auditorium on Sunday in the Goldwyn feature, "Guile of Women." As an extra added feature the Variety Harmony Quartet, singing this week at the Majestic theater, Columbus, will be heard in selected song selections. This act has been a big feature wherever heard and no doubt they will sing into the hearts of their hearers here Sunday.

EDITH ROBERTS IN "THE FIRE CAT."
Edith Roberts, noted Universal star, comes to the Alhambra Sunday in "The Fire Cat," a story that is sure to please all. A comedy, also a weekly news will also be seen.

COMPLETE CHANGE OF PROGRAM TODAY

To the Theatergoers of the City of Newark

Today I make the most interesting announcement I have ever made in my career as a theatrical manager. I believe the information contained in the following statement will be read with intense interest by all who value the best and most artistic in the world of amusement. I have always faithfully endeavored to bring to my patrons the biggest and the best theatrical attractions of all times, for I know that only the biggest and the best appeal. Now I am happy and proud to announce that I have contracted with P. Roy Comstock and Morris Gest, producers of the world-famous "Chu Chin Chow," whereby that brilliant and gorgeous spectacle of ancient Peking, the world's most beautiful production, will appear at the Weller theater, 3 days, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, March 7, 8 and 9, at 8 p. m. matinee Wednesday. "Chu Chin Chow" is a gigantic and gorgeous musical extravaganza in fourteen scenes with eighteen musical numbers, produced on a scale of colossal grandeur, employing the services of 200 people. It was originally presented in London at His Majesty's theater, nearly five years ago, by Oscar Asche, in association with the late Sir Herbert Tree, and is still playing there to capacity. The American production of "Chu Chin Chow" was made by Messrs. Comstock and Gest, after the payment of the biggest royalty ever known the world's most beautiful production, will appear at the Weller theater, 3 and costumes being imported from England and being exact duplicates of the originals. "Chu Chin Chow" ran one entire season in New York at the Century theater, and then played an entire season in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and several other big cities. This great production, once more presented in New York at the Century theater in August for a return engagement, and now embellished with many additional scenes and new costumes, comes here direct from its second engagement on Broadway. Owing to intense interest in the engagement, MAIL ORDERS for this important theatrical event will now be received. Send remittance with self-addressed, stamped envelope for return of tickets, and, as there will unquestionably be an avalanche of mail orders, please name choice of two performances to insure getting seats. Prices—Nights, $3.00, $2.50, $2.00, and $1.00. Wednesday Matinees, $2.50, $2.00 and $1.00. I believe the engagement of "Chu Chin Chow" will be the most notable event ever known at my theater. Workman Is Injured.
Joshua Cookly, an employee of the American Bottle company, was injured Thursday afternoon when he fell several feet from a ladder while at work. Barker's ambulance removed him to the Newark Sanitarium where an examination showed that he had sprained his back badly as he struck a ledge or something in the fall. His home is in Ohio street.

ON THE JOB EVERY DAY

Red-Blooded Men and Women Are Seldom Sick
WATCH YOUR BLOOD CONDITION
If You Look Pale, Feel Gloomy and Run-down, Take Pepito-Mangan and Build Up

You see men and women who are never sick. They work hard, look robust, eat heartily and enjoy life. They have plenty of rich, red blood. That is why they are never ill.

People who try to get along with weak, impoverished blood always have a struggle. They go from one sickness to another. Children the same way.

If you keep your blood rich and red you'll enjoy full vigor. Disease has little chance to develop in healthy blood. As soon as you feel run-down take Pepito-Mangan for awhile. It will feed your blood with the ingredients needed to create a good supply of red corpuscles.

Pepito-Mangan is sold in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer. They are alike in medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepito-Mangan—"Gude's". The full name, "Gude's Pepito-Mangan," should be on the package.—Advertisement.

"CHU CHIN CHOW" IN ZANESVILLE THREE DAYS
Bewitching Oriental and mystic, "Chu Chin Chow," fresh for a second triumphant engagement at the Century theater, New York, will be the attraction at the Veller theater, Zanesville, Ohio, three days commencing Monday night, March 7th, with a matinee on Wednesday.

This season, "Chu Chin Chow," comes garbed with a scenic and costume edition, duplicates of the jubilee production made last August, at His Majesty's theater, London, by Oscar Asche, the author of this extravaganza.

In the cast are Marjorie Wood, Henry Lattimer, Eugene Cowles, Don W. Pennington, Roy Trotter, Elsie Maistad, Adelaide Mesmer, Alfred Howson, Hattie Carmontel, Edgar Kiefer and many others including a ballet of six. The scenic value and array of dancers is headed by Helen Lee, brought from London for the American production.

to the man or woman who is run down, tired or overworked, Wendell Pills, Ambition Brand, should be found useful as a general tonic, and as an aid to nature in bringing strength and health.

Wendell Pills, Ambition Brand, have been used and recommended for years as a general tonic and mild laxative, a dependable preparation of genuine merit—perfectly safe and pleasant in action—entirely worthy of your confidence when ever a general tonic is needed.

T. J. Evans or any good druggist will supply you with Wendell Pills, Ambition Brand, on the understanding that they will cheerfully refund your money on the first package purchased if you are not entirely satisfied.

THE COURTS

Petit Larceny Verdict.
After deliberating two hours on the case of Edward Ellen, tried yesterday in common pleas court on the charge of stealing a quantity of bedding and dishes from the home of John S. Davis in the Wash Hills last September, the jury returned a verdict of guilty, placing the value of the goods stolen at $34. Testimony offered by witnesses placed the value of the goods at from $15 to $50. Had the goods been valued at $5 or more the men would have been guilty of grand larceny. As it is they are found guilty of petit larceny.

Losses Legal Fight.
Judge Harvey Alexander of the probate court handed down an opinion in an unusual case this morning. In the case of Ohio, ex rel, Mabel Price vs. Cleveland, Ohio, the probate court attorneys commenced a proceeding to be released on prison bonds. He failed to comply with the order of the court and pay $500 for the support of the child. The claim for release was based on the fact that he was imprisoned for "debt". The court held however that the word was wrongly used in that connection and refused the request for release.

Charges Abandonment.
In probate court today in the case of Nabe Fenneken vs. John Fenneken, Mrs. Fenneken filed an amended petition. The petition which is for divorce, claims abandonment and failure to provide divorce, temporary alimony, and custody of the child are asked.

Adopt Child.
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lohman of 39 W. Main street, filed a petition in probate court Tuesday for the legal adoption of Henrietta Hill.

Charges Gross Neglect.
Sarah E. Boylan, filed a suit for divorce from William H. Boylan in common pleas court this morning through her attorney L. C. Russell. Gross neglect was the cause named for the action. Divorce, temporary alimony, and custody of the child are asked of the court.

Must Support Child.
Officer John Dwyer went to Coshovek yesterday where he arrested Nick Vukovok, wanted in probate court for the non-support of his minor child, who is in the children's home. Vukovok was ordered to pay $30 due and was assessed the costs of the case by Judge Alexander.

Marriage Licenses.
Westley A. Smith, telegrapher, and Miss Marie Jackson, clerk, Rev. I. G. McCormack named to officiate.

LEGAL NOTICE

In the Court of Common Pleas, Licking County, Ohio.
Frances E. Davis, et al., Plaintiff vs.
David Thomas, et al., Defendants.

Action to Quiet Title to Real Estate. David Thomas and Mary Catherine Thomas, his wife, residing at Narberth Villa, Saundersfoot, Wales, Great Britain, William McDonald, widower of Margaret McDonald, deceased, and Mary Winifred Roberts and Richard Roberts, her husband, Annie McDonald, Kathleen J. McDonald, Dorris McDonald, Gertrude McDonald, and Nellie McDonald, children and heirs at law of Margaret McDonald, deceased, all residing at No. 34 Gordon Road, Seaford, Liverpool, England, John Alexander Hanna and Sarah Ann Hanna, a husband and wife, and James Daniel Griffiths Thomas all residing at Glanmorfa, No. 17 Church Road, Highgate, Tranmere, Birkenhead, Liverpool, England, will take notice that on the 25th day of August 1930, the plaintiffs filed their certain petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio, alleging that they are owners in fee simple and in actual possession and occupancy of the following described real estate and described in the petition as follows: Being Lot Number Forty-five Hundred and Forty (4540) in Daniel Thomas' Addition to the city of Newark, Ohio, according to a plat of the said addition, recorded in Volume 37 at page 91 of the Deed Records of Licking County, Ohio.

That defendants claim some interest hostile and adverse to plaintiffs.

The prayer of said petition is that the title to the above described real estate be quieted in the plaintiffs and that the defendants or those claiming through them be forever barred from claiming any right to the said premises. The above named parties have made parties defendant to said petition and they are required to answer the same on or before the 26th day of March, 1931, or judgment will be rendered in favor of plaintiffs as prayed for in the petition.

COIN WON'T BUY LOVE

Woman Turns Down Husband Who Deserted Her.

Prefers Work in Department Store to Life of Ease With Father of Her Children.

Chicago.—Mrs. Margaret Reeves, mother of 11 children, can leave her work in a loop department store and have servants and a thousand other things she has craved—if she wants them.

She doesn't want to. She's decided to keep plugging along at her grocery counter until she dies.

The reason for Mrs. Reeves' choice is that if she leaves her job for the ranch she will be compelled to live with her husband, James Reeves, who deserted her eight years ago.

Her children were small then, and Mr. and Mrs. Reeves were having a hard time of it, but Mrs. Reeves after years managed, some way, somehow, until her husband slid out with every cent in the house—$100 and a few cents.

Thereafter, Mrs. Reeves continued to manage, but not so well. She went to work. The children—those who were old enough—worked, too. Then one by one they died, until only four were left.

A week ago Reeves experienced a change of heart and wired Chief of Detectives Hughes that out in Pocatello, Idaho, where he had gone, he had been lucky. He said he had a ranch, all paid for, a lot of money and two kittens for the twins.

By the time Mrs. Reeves gets around to write her husband he will know the twins are dead. And she'll tell him her love died with the twins and with the other five children who are gone.

But she will add, on second thought, that they are still in poverty, although happy without him, and some of the money he has been bragging about can be used.

MADE OF VEGETABLES

It would need the discerning eye of a flower lover to tell at first glance that the specimens pictured here are not flowers. They are samples of the wizardry of M. Leopold Leone, an Italian ex-soldier and chef, whose converting of potatoes, turnips and other vegetables into beautiful "flowers" is at present the talk of London. The flowers pictured here are samples of M. Leone's finished work.

NERVOUS TROUBLES

When the nerves get out of order neither the red nor the white corpuscles perform with necessary activity. Sufficient oxygen is not carried to every portion of the body for conservation of nature's energy.

"This is the reason why nervous trouble makes people feel weak, run down and look so pale and also why it makes them suffer so many different pains. Redex not only relieves the brain, but it also helps to form blood, which carries health and vigor to every tired and worn out organ in the body.

Redex has been particularly successful in all cases of nerve trouble, which show their origin in any one of the following symptoms: Broken and restless sleep; sense of fullness after eating; pains in the back; drowsiness; heavy feeling about the bowels; dizziness; constant feeling of being tired; loss of appetite or a general run-down feeling.

Former nerve sufferers all over the country sing the praises of Redex in thousands of letters of testimony. Just try Redex yourself and note how much better you feel after taking it.

Redex is on sale at Erman's, Evans' and all leading druggists in Newark.

ECZEMA GONE QUICK RELIEF

Hydroal Gave Him Quick Relief
From Itching That Nearly Drove Him Frantic.

Free Sample Sent on Request.

His sister tells this story for the benefit of our readers: "I have Eczema almost all over my arm from wrist to shoulder, and the itching and burning nearly drove him frantic. He could hardly sleep and neither could he work much. It bothered him so. Our druggist told me Hydroal was wonderful for quick relief, so I took some home with me. He got almost instant relief and today the rash is entirely gone."

This is only one case. There are hundreds of others. Hydroal Ointment stops the horrible itching almost immediately after application. It allays inflammation and reduces the rash. Continued treatment should produce permanent relief. It is wonderful too for healing ulcers and old sores or any skin disease. Pimples often vanish overnight.

Practicing physicians and hospitals have used Hydroal in severe cases and recommend it for every purpose for which we advertise its use. Write today for our free booklet on skin diseases and their treatment and a sample of Hydroal to show what it will do for you.

Hydroal is for sale at most drug stores in popular sizes 25c and 50c, or is sent postpaid on receipt of price if today to $3.15 Hydroal Laboratories, 1009 Market Street, Newark, N. J. Write Cincinnati, O.—Advertisement.

NEWARK LADY IS A GREAT BOOSTER

She never misses a chance to say a good word for Dreco, the great herbal remedy which helped her.

Citizens in all stations of life, high and low, the rich, the poor, men and women become life long friends of the great herbal remedy Dreco when they give it a fair trial. There is a lady well known in Newark, Ohio, and surrounding country who is highly pleased with what Dreco did for her and openly tells about it. She is Mrs. May Hammond, a well known Dressmaker of 132 East Main street, Newark, Ohio, who says: "I was quite nervous so that my work was a drag, my bowels were constipated all the time and my stomach got out of order, often filling up, with gas and cramps caused much suffering. Dreco very quickly overcame the constipation and put a stop to the gas and cramps, my nerves became steady and I got more sleep which made me feel so much better. I gained five pounds on my first bottle of Dreco. Dreco is a grand medicine, and everything that is claimed for it."

After taking DRECO it is soon noticed that the bowels begin to act regular, the stomach becomes settled and the gas ceases to collect, kidneys are strengthened and liver cleared off. DRECO is pleasant to take and prompt in action. DRECO is being specially introduced by Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store in Newark, Ohio and sold by all druggists.

IODINE HEALS RUNNING SORES, QUICK RELIEF

Old Sores, Abscesses, Boils, Ringworms, Chronic Ulcers, etc., are best treated and most quickly healed by the application of Iodine, says a well-known authority who states that the widespread use of iodine in army medical corps, has thoroughly proved its great value. He warns, however, against the use of common tincture of iodine, because in this form it irritates and stains the skin. The new form of Iodine—Lanolated Iodine compound is the best for such purposes. This comes in the form of an ointment and is practically stainless, will not irritate, and is readily absorbed by the tissues. In the Lanolated form, Iodine is easy and pleasant to use and every disagreeable feature has been removed. It quickly penetrates, soothes, cleanses, and heals and is really delightful. Nearly all local druggists now sell and recommend Lanolated Iodine. Try it. We believe nothing you have ever used will prove so effective and satisfying.

PRIMING CUPS HOLD JUST RIGHT AMOUNT

The priming cups on top of the cylinders hold about the right amount of priming fluid to coat the walls of the cylinders the mixture may be too rich and the starting be difficult or too lean.

Quite often carburetors can be traced back to the gas engine. If one of the prime valves does not seat properly, or the valve stem sticks in its guide occasionally it will be a difficult matter to obtain satisfactory adjustment of the carburetor.

Next Week's Games. Monday: N. B. C. vs. Neal Avenue M. F.; First Methodist vs. First Presbyterian.

Thursday night's first game between the First Presbyterian and the Maple Avenue C. U. was a good one. The first half looked as if the Maple Avenue squad was scheduled to lose another game as the First Presbyterian bunch seemed to be just getting started and prepared to run up a big score on its opponents.

CHAS. H. BURNER DIES IN EAST

Body of Former Newark Business Man Will Be Brought Here For Funeral and Interment.

A telegram to Mrs. Robbins Hunter received this morning, brought the news of the death of her brother, Charles H. Burner, a former Newark business man, at his home in Baltimore, Maryland.

No particulars were received of his illness. The body will be brought here for burial.

Mr. Burner was born in this city and spent the greater part of his life here. After graduation from an eastern college he engaged in business with his father, the late J. V. Burner. Later he formed a partnership with the late James K. Hunt and they conducted a hardware store where the Trust company now stands.

After leaving Newark he became connected with the H. H. Hunt-Huntington company of Cleveland and at the time of his death was associated with the general offices of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad in Baltimore. Mr. Burner left Newark about 20 years ago.

Surviving are his widow, who was Miss Laura Bunting of this city, two sons and two daughters, Charles H. Burner of Washington, D. C., Miss Mabel Burner of Jamestown, New York, and Helen and Russell of the home.

Mrs. Christine Burner, mother of the deceased, and two sisters, Mrs. Robbins Hunter and Mrs. Charles H. Stinson of this city also survive.

The body will arrive here Friday afternoon via the R. and O. at 1 o'clock and will be taken in charge by Funeral Director J. A. McLaughlin and taken to the home of Mrs. C. H. Stinson. Funeral services will be held in the Stinson home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. B. R. Wood, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church will officiate. Private burial will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The first medal of record is that given by an emperor of China to his military commanders in the first century.

TEARS MINGLE WITH LAUGHS IN "SHAVINGS"

Henry W. Savage offered at the Auditorium theater last night "Shavings," which was billed as a Cape Cod comedy. There was some good comedy, but even though was shadowed by a tear and when the final curtain fell, "shavings" were playing a prominent part.

"Shavings" is dramatized from J. C. Lincoln's novel "Shavings" and the story leaves you torn between two emotions, sorrow for Jed or "Shavings" as he is called, because his love affair for the bright young widow terminates hopelessly and fear that the story will become ridiculous if the author does bring about a marriage between the young charming widow and a man of Jed's advanced years.

"Shavings" is a toy maker, absent minded, but of wonderful kindness. The story centers around his shop and the characters of the town are brought there. A second love story is that of the son of Phineas Bibbitt and the daughter of Captain Hunnawell, who are bitter enemies.

Harry Heresford originated the role of "Shavings" in the New York production and built up a wonderful character portrayal in the role of the unassuming, kindly minded toy maker. Two splendid characterizations were given by James Bradbury as Captain Hunnawell and Charles Dow Clark as Phineas Bibbitt. Marie Vernon, the baby of the company, is a charming child actress and takes the role played by Lillian Roth in the New York company.

A clever juvenile role was given by Robert Craig as Leander Bibbitt. While Newark folks were disappointed in not seeing Bishop Dickinson, a former Newark boy in the cast, Mr. Dickinson resigning from the company Saturday, the character of Charles Phillips, which he played was given a clever enactment by his successor.

A petite, charming widow was Clara Moores as Ruth Armstrong and Patri-c Morris made an appealing Maude Hunnawell.

As the town gossip "Gabe," Ben Lodge was well received and two other characters were well given, Mitchell Harris as Major Grover and Dudley Clements as Roscoe Holway, the talky salesman.

Two fair sized audiences saw the attraction. The production was well staged and given excellent presentation.

MUNSON MUSIC CO. HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the H. D. Munson Sons Music company was held Monday and Charles Munson was re-elected president. Other officers were re-elected.

This institution, founded in 1851 by H. D. Munson, Sr., has stood the test of time and occasional financial crisis. R. S. Swingle has been salesman in Newark and adjacent territory for 18 years and E. H. Frame, manager of the local store in the Arcade has been with the company 11 years.

All the officers of the company are stockholders. The long-term employees demonstrate the "square deal" attitude of the house.

The Munson company is the oldest patrons of the Knabe Piano company of Baltimore. This company has representatives all over the world, but the Munson company is the pioneer purchasing company from that well known house.

H. D. Munson, Sr., who came from Winsted, Conn., to Zanesville, was a "singing master" and organized singing schools throughout the country. He taught music at the Putnam "Female" seminary and in the Zanesville public schools. He was led to establish a music store by one of his pupils asking if he could secure a piano for her.

The motor and radiator of a new French automobile are mounted close to the rear axle, the inventor claiming this arrangement permits the use of smaller and lighter bodies.

REGULAR HABITS NOW, CONSTIPATION GONE

Mr. Brooks suffered for years—Tells how he got relief.

"I have tried a great many things for constipation, but the only thing that has been able to relieve me is Milks Emulsion. I am on only my second bottle and have to take very little of it now. My bowels move regularly every morning, which they have not been doing for a number of years. It seems like living again, after suffering so long. I recommend Milks Emulsion to two of my friends and both say it is the best remedy they ever heard of."—Elmer C. Brooks, 329 Washington St., Peoria, Ill.

Constipation weakens the bowel muscles. Salts and purgatives only increase this condition. Milks Emulsion is a real corrective remedy. You can try it under its guarantee, without risking a cent.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repelling the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

EIGHT NEW WELLS FLOW 238 BBLs.

Northwestern Ohio Field Shows Light Average Production Figure of Oil Journal Reveal.

Toledo, Feb. 17.—Hancock county leads in the number of oil wells, drilled in the northwestern Ohio field, says the January Field Review, issued here. There are 22 wells now being drilled in that county.

Wells drilled in other counties in the district, according to the Review are: Wood, 9; Auglaize, 7; Sandusky, 4; Mercer, 10; Van Wert, 3; Seneca, 7; Lucas, 2; Ottawa, 3; Lorain, 1; Crawford, 1; Henry, 3; Hardin, 1.

Wood county leads in complete wells with 13, from which there was an initial production of 205 barrels, according to the Review. Hancock county had eight new wells with 238 barrels initial output, it said.

The total of new wells was 41, with initial production of 642 barrels. There was a decrease of 16 in completed wells, and 62 barrels in production.

The largest well of the month in the Lima field was a 100-barrel producer, brought in by the Clement Purvis company on the J. H. Heers farm, near McComb.

OIL WELL SPECIALTY WINS PRAISE IN USE

Among the various products of the Cree Backer Oil Well Tool company is a patented specialty, an elevator, which is used in the oil fields to raise and lower castings in and out of the well. Two purchasing agents of two different companies write under recent date concerning the elevator as follows:

"We wish to compliment you on the very fine workmanship and nice appearing elevator. This is the best looking elevator we have seen for some time and it is also well proportioned."

The other concerning the elevator states:

"We are pleased to advise that the hair set which you expressed to the writer has been received, and we are very glad indeed to advise you that this elevator has no fault in it that we can see, and appears to be all that could be desired."

GRANVILLE

(Special to the Advocate) Granville, Feb. 17.—The sixth Schubert program was given by the Women's Music club in the community rooms yesterday afternoon. The program was as follows: "Symphony in C major," Mrs. Lytle and Mrs. Darrow; Favorite songs: "Angel of Beauty" and "Ave Maria," Mrs. Rohrer; "The Wanderer," Mrs. Carey Jones; "The Maiden's Lament," Mrs. Sheppardson; "Scherzo in B flat," Mrs. Stuart; "Scherzo in B major," Mrs. Stuckney. Miscellaneous songs: "Faith in Spring," Mrs. Morrow; "Praise of Tears" and "The Trout," Mrs. Coons; "Wanderer's Night-song," Mrs. Carey Jones; "Grandes Marches," Op. 40, No. 5, Mrs. Blefeld and Mrs. Lytle; "No. 3," Mrs. Darrow and Mrs. Lytle.

Mrs. Dundee and Mrs. Ogden were in Granville yesterday calling on friends. Burton Case is confined to his home with a severe attack of lumbago. Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson entertained at dinner Tuesday evening Rev. and Mrs. Breeze and their cousin, Dr. Charles Little of Wabash, Indiana. Last evening they entertained with a family dinner party for the pleasure of Dr. Little.

Mrs. A. P. Nichol has been ill for several days but is improving. The Denison Washington banquet to be held in the dining hall of Shepardson college promises to be one of the best affairs ever held in the institution. The two speakers, chosen from the senior class are Miss Elva Morris and Theodore Adams and Dr. Francis W. Sheppardson, Denison '82, will be the principal speaker of the occasion. Dr. Sheppardson is a son of the late Dr. Daniel Sheppardson and lived in Granville until he completed his college course. He has just completed a term of office in Governor Lowden's cabinet as chief of the bureau of education.

Mrs. Charles Thornton entertained at dinner yesterday noon Mrs. Raymond Tatham and daughters Jeanette and Annabelle and Mrs. E. L. Nichol of Alexandria.

Mrs. Charles Wyant leaves tomorrow for Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania, to visit her mother, Mrs. Rachael Rodemier, whose 94th birthday anniversary will be observed February 22. Mrs. Wyant expects to be gone about two weeks.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easily prepared, and saves about $2.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick help, try this reliable oil home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "Pinex," and get the product with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Winter winds and the complexion

Lovers of the winter outdoors will find in Resinol Soap and Ointment most valuable aids for combating its bad effects on the complexion. The use of harsh, caustic soaps often promotes chapping and redness, but the purity and soothing qualities of Resinol Soap tend to prevent such conditions. If, however, the skin has become chapped a little Resinol Ointment stops the burning and stinging and keeps the skin soft and smooth. Be prepared to enjoy winter. Protect your skin by using Resinol. GREAT INCUBATOR IS IN OPERATION

Thousands of Chicks Will Be Hatched in Machine Installed By Newark Hatchery Company.

Near the middle of March several thousand chicks will be hatched right here in the heart of the city. A "Mammoth" incubator made by the Buckeye Incubator Company of Springfield, has been placed in the northwest store room of the Peoples' Market on Third street, by the Newark Hatchery company. The company was organized several weeks ago, by Fisher Brothers, the poultry dealers and William H. Broom, who operates the Cherry Valley Poultry Farm.

The machine which is incased in beautiful finished solid California redwood of three thicknesses, is 8 foot square and can be operated in a room 12x12. It contains 108 trays which hold 98 eggs to the tray. Each tray is labeled with the owners name by serial number, variety of the eggs, and three testing dates, the dates set and hatching date, etc. There is a patent turning device which makes it possible to turn all of the eggs as the trays dip.

At full capacity the machine will hold 10,384 eggs, and by the patent turner 10,000 eggs can be turned in three minutes. There are two thermometers hung between the center trays and the incubator is heated by a hot water system. At the back of the machine a tank containing 15 gallons of water is heated by two coal oil burners. The burners consume a gallon of oil every 12 hours, and the water travels in and out through the machine constantly.

On the top are three special made large 60 inch ballbearing electric fans which take in the cold air and equally distribute the hot.

The eggs are hatched in this machine at 100 degrees instead of the usual 103 degrees.

The machine is the most compact on the market today of any hatching over 10,000 eggs.

Mr. Broom who has had a course of poultry raising at the American Poultry School in Kansas City, Mo., is manager of the company and will have charge of the incubator. At his farm he breeds White Orpingtons and White Leghorns and has been very successful with his exhibits at poultry shows.

About 4000 eggs will be set today or Saturday.

The machine has been a great curiosity and many people visited the place while it was being put in place and since.

PILING UP COSTS.

During a period of inflation and extravagance people get into wasteful ways, particularly if they are handling other people's money.

Here is a case that some one was telling of the other day. A certain railroad runs a branch line on which it has a little flag station serving a small village. There are five trains a day each way, and the station has to be opened and closed when they go through.

For many years the road hired an old man who lived close by, to come over and open up the station. This man was not able to do much work, and he used to spend the rest of his time raising vegetables and doing light work in the neighborhood. The total time required was not over three hours a day, and the job could be combined with other work. The railroad paid for many years about $200.00 a year, and the old man was thankful to get the chance.

Then war conditions came along. The railroads were required to standardize their jobs and pay minimum rates. The work of opening up that station, which formerly cost but $200 a year, was now standardized at $1,750.00 per week, or $1,750.00 a year. An able bodied man took the work and loafed around most of the time. A man running a private business would no doubt have had to pay much more than $200.00 for that work in these times, but it would not have cost him anything like $1,750.00. Cases like this are said to be common on many railroads.

Some people will say the railroads are to blame for these wasteful ways. Others will lay it to practice introduced during government operation. The railroads say that the labor compels them to pay exorbitant rates, and will not allow exceptions to be made in special cases. But whoever is to blame, money is wasted by the failure of common sense somewhere, and the public pays the cost in high transportation rates.

GREAT WEALTH.

John D. Rockefeller's wealth has recently been estimated at $899,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 after giving away $50,000,000. Many people will wish they had a slice of this vast fortune.

But is a multimillionaire happier than other folk? Some of these having great possessions ruined their health in the exhausting business struggle. They spend their lives in the elusive pursuit of vanished vigor, chasing from one doctor to another and migrating between health resorts. Not much happiness there.

Many wealthy people worry as much about their venture as do people of smaller means. If they give up business and live on income, then they fret for the activities which give their lives their only zest. The sage of old who said, "Give me neither poverty nor riches," was wiser than many moderns.

THE LOSS OF MAN POWER.

The number of lives lost through the war is estimated by a Danish research authority to have been 45,000,000, of which 9,829,000 were killed in battle. Of these figures, 20,000,000 represent not living persons who died, but the shortage of population caused by a decreased birth rate. And deaths increased 15,130,000 over previous rates. There is now an excess of female population over male in Europe of 15,000,000.

While a terrible calamity like this seems irreparable, it sets in motion forces of recovery that may offset the loss. The practical result has been to open the doors of opportunity to women, who were refused entrance to many fields of effort when men applicants were abundant. The final effect of the war will be to give women a much larger place in industrial achievement. In the end the world may be the gainer by its terrible sacrifice.

FOREIGN RELATIONS.

(The Outlook.)

One of the most perplexing problems which Mr. Harding will have to face when he becomes President of the United States on March 4 is the question of foreign relations. It is especially perplexing because so comparatively few Americans give any serious consideration to it. More than twenty-five million American citizens who voted at the last Presidential election, basing their action very largely on a domestic situation, registered a sweeping decision unprecedented in the history of the ballot. Of this enormous number of men and women it is safe to say that only a small percentage pay much attention to the relations of the United States to its neighbors in the community of the world. This is because most Americans have a vague idea that the United States is self-contained and is not concerned, and perhaps ought not to be concerned, with what goes on in the rest of the world. There are three principal causes for this state of mind. First, Washington is widely quoted, but widely misunderstood, dictum that we ought not to have entangling alliances; second, our geographical situation, which in the early days of the Republic did separate us from Europe and Asia almost as much as though we were living on another planet; and third, the extreme development of the protective system here after the Civil War, which taught large numbers of our people to think that the more commodities we can keep out of the country from foreign parts the richer we shall become.

The World War has changed all this. It found that we had to have an alliance for self-protection with France, England, Italy and Belgium. We found that modern science, with its wireless telegraph and submarine cables, had so dried up the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans that the failure of a silk house in Japan or a great bank in London had our satisfaction as a disastrous effect on our own finance and industry. And we found that trade is simply barter. That if we do not take goods from Japan and England we cannot sell our Japanese and English goods, and our cotton and wheat producing states are suffering from a disastrous industrial depression.

There is another thing which should make every citizen deeply interested in the question of foreign relations. It is direct effect on the condition and the breadbasket of life.

It is announced by the Secretary of the Treasury that the budget of the Federal Government for the next fiscal year is four billion dollars. At least one-half of this amount, or two billion dollars, is to be paid for foreign relations, which included the World War. About eight hundred million dollars of this sum has to be raised annually to pay the interest on Liberty Bonds alone. We have become so accustomed during the last five years to talk in big figures that the word billion comes trippingly off the tongue without much comprehension of what it actually means. If a minting machine had started to coin gold dollars at the birth of time and had continued to this date without the slightest interruption turning out those coins at the rate of two a minute, it could have only on January 1, 1921, succeeded in producing two billion dollars. And yet we propose to raise this terrific sum annually by taxation to pay for the results of our foreign relations.

The world is now growing under an almost intolerable burden of war taxes. We are not going to be intelligent enough to pay sufficient attention hereafter to foreign relations to save our children and grandchildren from being plunged into the mess in which we find ourselves involved?

QUAKER QUIPS.

BORROWED HUSBANDS

By MILDRED K. BARBOUR

XXXV.—The Grain of Doubt.

"We left her gasping, anyway," said Nancy complacently to Desmond, as they drove off in a taxi from the shop of Fleurette.

He turned to her unsmiling. "Was that really the girl Langwell had with him at luncheon?"

"Of course. Didn't you recognize her? How dense men are! I knew her the moment she came forward, even with a different gown and without a hat."

"But as a dressmaker, isn't that a bit thick for a chap of his standing?"

"Oh, I don't know. Actresses, models, manicurists—what difference does it make to a man who is a born philanderer?"

"And I'm afraid most of you are that," she added with a smile.

His eyes held hers.

"You think that of me?"

"I don't want to," Nancy confessed naively. "Since my husband went—ah—has—died—I mean—to leave me, as many mortals put it, it would be rather refreshing to find one who didn't try to make love to me."

"Hush! It occurred to you that men are likely to be serious in their regard for you, Mr. Langwell?"

"Oh, but they wouldn't be, on the face of it," began Nancy quickly. "No married woman, no woman who HAS been married, that is."

She broke off in confusion.

That wretched use of her was getting her into deeper and deeper difficulties.

"Let's change the subject," she suggested. "I don't feel like talking sentiment this afternoon. Tell me how you like my new gowns?"

They looked well on the model, so I know they will be most charming when worn by you."

Nancy spread out her hand with a coquettish gesture.

"That was a bad move on my part. I'm afraid I've been out of the game so long that I lose a trick now and then for stupidity."

"Why do you insist on playing a game?" she asked.

"Why insist?" sighed Nancy, and inwardly asked herself the same question.

Already, with Gerry hardly across the continent on his long trip to Peru, she was a little wearied, a little bored.

She told herself sharply that she was having a wonderful time, that she was enjoying her emancipation from three consecutive years of matrimony. But a queer longing for the time when she had not had to force herself to be entertaining and vivacious if that was not her mood, when she had not had to think twice before she made some careless remark, lest it be misinterpreted, when she had felt at liberty to say to Gerry: "For Heaven's sake keep quiet, you bore me," if she wanted to read or give herself up to uninterrupted thought.

"It's terrible to be a woman and have to sit across a table from the man who is paying the check and smile until your face freezes when he is interested in a lingering death on your back," she thought.

But secretly, she was a little alarmed at her own mental and emotional lassitude.

"I'll be all right once I get into the swing of action again," she told herself. "Working at the time when an attractive woman is just the warning up an athlete who hasn't been in training. It's rough going at first, and all the muscles of your brain and you are so weary you could doze off after a time it becomes a pleasure and you can deliver a smashing speech without the least conscious effort."

The next turning into the Langwell home, she roused herself to her reverie. She came back to reality with a sense of mortification.

"I'm so sorry I've been so fearfully stupid," she told the young officer coquettishly, and added: "It's because you're such a comfortable companion. Sciences with you aren't awkward at all, they're signs of perfect sympathy and understanding."

He held her hand a moment after he had assisted her to alight, and looked down into her eyes.

His interest in her was beyond the point of concealment.

FOUR DOCTORS GAVE HER UP

Through a Neighbor's Advice This Woman Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Kenosha, Wis.—"I suffered with a female trouble and at last was in bed for six weeks with what the doctors called inflammation of the bowels. Four of them said I could not live. A neighbor told me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me from the start. When the doctor came I told him what I had taken and he said, 'Throw my medicine away and keep on with the Pinkham medicine.' I did and it cured me. If more women would take your medicine they would not suffer so. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to lots of people and they have been satisfied."—Mrs. MARY REAGAN, 270 1/2 Wisconsin St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

When a woman is beset with such symptoms as irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, a displacement, backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness or the "blues" she should treat the cause of such conditions by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the standard remedy for women's ills.

Quits Cathartics—Internal Baths Relieved Permanently

Mr. Joseph A. Weiss, Hotel Vendome, Washington, D. C., writes Tyrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"On the 15th of June, 1915, I purchased a 'J. B. Cascade.' The result it has produced is simply marvelous. For 20 years I used cathartics, but have used nothing but the Cascade for almost a month. I feel like a new man; I want to be pleasant to everybody. Before I used the Cascade I was a grouchy. Did not like anybody and could not be pleasant."

If you bathe internally with the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable. Poisonous waste in the lower intestines makes us bilious, blue and nervous. Internal baths are Nature's own cure for constipation—just antiseptic warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

It is the invention of Charles L. Tyrell, M. D., of New York, who specialized on internal bathing for 25 years, and will be shown and explained to you by Hudson Avenue Pharmacy 322 Hudson Avenue, who will also be glad to give you on request an interesting booklet, called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 per cent Efficient," which covers the subject in a very thorough way.

Cite this out as a reminder and ask for the booklet the first time you are in the neighborhood.—Adv.

Nathaniel Householder.
Nathaniel Householder, aged 69 years died at 12:30 this morning at the home of his brother, Edward Householder, a mile and a half north of Chatham. Mr. Householder suffered an attack of influenza two years ago and his death was due to complications which resulted.

Mr. and Mrs. Householder made Johnstown their home and last November went to the brothers home near Chatham. Mr. Householder had been ill for the past three months. He was the son of Daniel Householder and was born May 15, 1851 in Licking county, where his entire life was spent.

He is survived by his widow, an aged mother, Mrs. Martha Householder of the home and three brothers, Edward and Milton also of the home and Harvey of Utica.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 12:30 sun-time in the Chatham M. E. church and burial will be made in Alexandria cemetery.

HEAR TALK ON LINCOLN.
At the latest meeting of the North Fourth street school Parent-Teacher association meeting held yesterday afternoon at the school, the assembled parents teachers and children were addressed by Rev. J. G. McCormick. His subject "Lincoln" was ably treated and his address enjoyed. The meeting opened with a recitation of the "American Creed" by Lawrence Rhoads, followed by the song "America the Beautiful" by the eight grade pupils. The pupils of the second grade gave the flag drill.

To insure accuracy a Chicago inventor electrically connected a revolution counter for machinery and a stop watch.

YOU MUST HAVE FISH NET FROCK TO BE IN SWIM

Fish net lace is the season's newest fad. It is used for trimming or may be used for whole frocks. Here is a pretty frock made of it. The lace is heavily embroidered in sea-blue with touches of black. The lace is draped over yellow satin. It makes a fetching dinner gown.

7 BIG LEAGUE TEAMS TO HAVE NEW MANAGERS

Connie Mack and John McGraw Among Noted Men to Stick.

Cobb Blossoms Out This Year as Manager of Detroit Club.

New York—Seven of the 16 clubs in the major leagues, three in the National and four in the American, will take the field for the 1921 campaign under the leadership of new managers. The opening of nearly every baseball season finds one or two new managers, but it is a long time since there has been such a general shakeup among the field generals of the major league clubs.

With all the changes of leaders that have been made from year to year there are two managers who stand out prominently in the history of baseball because of their long service with their respective clubs—Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics and John J. McGraw of the New York Giants. Mack has led the Athletics since they entered the American League in 1901 and has won six pennants and three world's championships. McGraw became manager of the Giants in 1902, and like Mack, has piloted his team to six pennants, but has won the world's championship only once.

One of the most notable changes among the managers for the coming season is the appointment of Ty Cobb to lead Detroit Tigers as the successor of Hughie Jennings. The latter quit the Tigers after 14 years, during which he won three pennants, to become assistant to Manager McGraw of the Giants. What Cobb will do as a major league manager will be closely watched by the fans throughout the country. As a player he has won about every honor the game affords with the exception of playing on a world's championship team, and has been proclaimed by all one of the greatest players in the history of baseball, and by some the greatest.

While Ty is not the Cobb of a few years ago he still is a great player and it remains to be seen what effect, if any, the duties of manager will have upon his playing. Like Tris Speaker, manager of the world's champion Cleveland team, Cobb will continue to play center field, and he and Speaker will be the only playing managers in the major leagues. They also are said to be the highest paid active players in the game, each drawing salaries both as players and managers. In addition Speaker is said to have received an interest in the Cleveland club for winning the first pennant and world's championship for the city.

Another change of managers that ended a long career of leadership on the diamond was that of the Washington club. Clark Griffith, who has become principal owner of the club, turned over the managerial duties to his able lieutenant, George McBride, for many years shortstop of the team. Griffith managed the Washington club for nine years and previous to that had served as manager of the Chicago White Sox, the New York Yankees and the Cincinnati club. Griffith now will devote all his time to the executive business of the club of which he is president. McBride began his major league career with Washington in 1908 and played shortstop until a year or two ago.

Hugh Duffy, famous as an outfielder and batter several years ago, will lead the Boston Red Sox as the successor of Edward G. Barrow. The latter, who managed the Red Sox three years, winning a pennant and a world's championship, is now business manager of the New York Yankees.

Lee Fohl, a former manager of the Cleveland team, will lead the St. Louis Browns in succession to Jimmy Burke, who has signed as coach of the Red Sox. Changes of managers in the National League involve the Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia clubs. George Stallings gave up the management of the Boston Braves after eight years to become president and manager of the Rochester club of the New International League. It is a coincidence that Stallings will be succeeded as manager of the Braves by Fred Mitchell, who was his chief assistant and coach when the Braves made their remarkable showing in 1914. Mitchell has been manager of the Chicago Cubs for the last four years and piloted his club to the National League pennant in 1918.

He will be succeeded by Johnny Evers, whose appointment has been approved generally by the Chicago fans. Evers gained all his fame on the diamond while playing with the Cubs, having joined the team in 1902. He became the regular second baseman the next year and continued in that position to the end of the 1913 season. In the latter season he succeeded Frank L. Chance as manager and lasted one year. Evers was granted his unconditional release and signed with Boston, became captain of the team and was a big factor in the Braves' success of 1914. After Evers' year as manager of the Cubs, Hank O'Day, the veteran umpire, Roger Bresnahan and Joe Tinker each served a year and then came the four year tenure of Fred Mitchell.

The Philadelphia Nationals will be managed next season by Bill Donovan, who will be the third manager since Pat Moran was released. Moran was succeeded by Jack Coombs, who gave way in mid season of the 1919 campaign and was succeeded by Gavy Cravath. The latter continued throughout last year and next season will be with the Pacific Coast League. Donovan was one of the best pitchers in baseball during the pennant-winning years of the Detroit Tigers. He was at one time manager of the New York Yankees and last year piloted the Jersey City team of the New International League.

INTRA-MURAL TEAMS AT O. S. U. RESUME

Columbus—The resumption of intra-mural basketball at Ohio State university is expected to bring some hot contests in the opening weeks of the second semester.

Of the 92 teams in intramurals, 22 still are undefeated, but the season is not far enough advanced to predict what one of these teams will be the intra-mural champion. On the other hand, there are some fast going teams which have dropped one or two games, which may be able to pull out of the lower ranks and at least win league championships.

There are no undefeated quintets in the inter-board club League. Southern leads with a percentage of .750, and four other teams follow with .667. Law and miners are leading the A division of the inter-college League and Arts and Vets are undefeated in B division, but the schedule has been so full of forfeits, it is hard to figure out which team is making the best showing.

LENINE EXPECTS LONG RESISTANCE

Says Russian Peasants Will Oppose Communists 40 Years.

Dictatorship Will Continue Until They Submit in Peace.

London.—Nikolai Lenine, Bolshevik premier of Russia, expects the Russian peasants to continue their resistance against the dictatorship of the proletariat for 40 years, but says the communists will continue that government until they submit, according to the delegates of the Spanish Socialist party, who have just returned from Moscow. The Spaniards went to Russia to present a statement of the conditions under which their party would affiliate with the Third Internationale. On their return they told a representative of the Times about their interview with the Bolshevik premier.

Asked by Senor de los Rios and Senor Anguiano, who made the trip to the Soviet capital, when the Russian dictatorship would be replaced by a regime of freedom, Premier Lenine said: "We have never spoken of liberty. We are exercising the dictatorship of the proletariat in the name of the minority because the peasant class in Russia is not yet with us. We shall continue to exercise the dictatorship until they submit. I estimate the dictatorship will last about 40 years." Senor de los Rios and Senor Anguiano, who disagree as to the expediency of adopting the dictatorship of the proletariat idea, spent two months in Russia. While both were disappointed by conditions there, they were full of admiration for the possibilities of the Russian revolution. Their report will be presented at a Spanish Nationalist Socialist congress April 9 when the question of affiliation with Moscow will be decided.

The Spanish delegates presented the three objections of the Spanish Socialists to Lenin's 21 points (terms of admission to the Third Internationale) and brought back a stirring appeal from the executive committee of the Internationale to the Spanish proletariat to disregard the hesitations of their chiefs and give adherence to the Communist body.

SHALL GERMANY OR FRANCE PAY THE WAR BILL?

If Germany doesn't pay, France must. In effect, this is the reply of a large section of the press of the United States to those economists who insist that the war bill presented to Germany by the Allies—226,000,000,000 gold marks payable in forty-two years, plus a 12 per cent, export tax—is more than that nation can pay. "The astonishing fact is that it does not seem to have occurred to these British and American pleaders for Germany that if she does not pay for the devastation she methodically wrought, her victims must," exclaims the Philadelphia North American, which points out that "when it is argued that the sum demanded in reparations should be reduced, this means precisely that suffers from her aggression shall be penalized to the extent of the remission."

On the other hand, some editors are convinced that the Allies are demanding more than Germany can pay. "France wants Germany's blood, and it deserves Germany's blood, but it must get it by transfusion, not by murder," remarks the Louisville Courier-Journal. "Germany can never pay the 226,000,000,000 gold marks indemnity," exclaims the Seattle Times, and the New York Evening World characterizes the reparations program as "amazing and impossible."

New Lower Prices On Furniture For Your Immediate Consideration

Paving The Way To True Economy For Furniture Buyers—

Regardless of the original cost to us, we have gone over our entire stock of dependable "Saw-Test" furniture, remarking and cutting the retail prices in conformity with the lowest marks as indicated by leading manufacturers present day costs.

This means lower than the lowest retail or sale prices on furniture. First, because our buying connections with 33 large retail furniture stores makes it possible to buy for less, as the lowest quotations are lower to us than to the average retailer.

A careful analysis of condition, reveals the fact that furniture is not likely to be maintained at its lowest mark. When it comes to a replacement of stock, we may be obliged to pay more. For this very substantial reason, we urge that you buy your contemplated furnishings right now and be certain of obtaining them at our present lower prices.

Then if you would gain another saving, we suggest you inquire about our trade-in-plan. We accept your used furniture as part payment on the new period designs you naturally prefer. The used furniture going direct to our Trade-In-Store in Columbus for re-sale. Unquestionably, you can save more at this Metropolitan Furniture Store. York for a solid year to crowded houses, duplicating its triumph in Chicago. It comes here after a veritable triumph on tour, with the original production and cast, and acclaimed by the press throughout the country as the funniest play ever produced.

Though its name seems to suggest a bedroom farce, there is not a single suggestive or objectionable line or scene in the whole play, despite the unconventional situations. The critics declare that it is as wholesome as it is laughable. A writer on one of the New York dailies said: "One couldn't call it a bedroom farce because there is no bedroom, but one could call it a scream—a scream of delight from the audience."

WILLIAM S. HART IN AN UNUSUAL ROLE
 William S. Hart in "John Petticoats," a Paramount-Artcraft photoplay, is being shown at the Alhambra today.

This feature affords this rugged star an entirely new role. Instead of the time-honored westerner he portrays the part of a modiste in the city of New Orleans. In the New Orleans modiste, which he came, John Hart is known as "Hardwood," a name he earned because he was the boss lumberjack of the camp. By the will of an uncle, just deceased, he has become owner of the modiste shop. Arriving in the southern city he is habited to find that he owns a petticoat parlor.

It happens one day that Judge Meredith is unable to pay his granddaughter for a new graduating dress, and "Hardwood" comes to the rescue by offering to board with him and thus provide the old gentleman with the necessary money. A ball is given in honor of her homecoming and John makes a sorry spectacle of himself. His crude manners prove a handicap in his efforts to win Caroline. His rival, a dissolute scion of a wealthy family, saves his life shortly after, and out of gratitude, the rough modiste offers to do anything for him.

He finds out afterward that the young scoundrel is responsible for his forefathers' taking her life. So Hart is called upon to make good his promise. The result is he remains silent so that his name is not connected with the tragedy. Judge Meredith has just requested him to leave the house when he receives a letter which clears up the complications. The photoplay is well made and will please all.

OLIVE TELL FEATURED IN "THE WINGS OF PRIDE"
 She was a beautiful beauty and the adopted daughter of a wealthy New York society woman. Olive Tell knew nothing of her real parents, nor did she know much about anyone who did not come into her own sphere of life. At then one day the crash came. Tumbling down came her pride and regal bearing, she was compelled to acknowledge a drunken tool of a political boss as her father.

That is a brief outline of the beginning of the tensity dramatic story of "Wings of Pride," written by Louise Kennedy Mabie, and made into a sensational photoplay by Jans Pictures, Inc., with beautiful Olive Tell as the star. This deeply interesting picture is being shown at the Grand theater today and tomorrow.

"Wings of Pride" unfolds on the screen a story that fairly teems with rare, dramatic incidents, sensational scenes and real thrills. Two of the most exciting incidents in this peculiarly entertaining drama show a brutal political boss making violent advances to the beautiful daughter of a man he holds in his power, while another depicts the exciting race of an automobile with an express train, the driver of the car endeavoring to beat the train to a crossing.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK'S BIG MUSICAL REVUE
 Judging from the present reports received from other cities, Raymond Hitchcock's big musical comedy revue, "Hitchy-Koo," which will be at the Auditorium theater on Washington's Birthday is all they claim to be and more.

This season's new version of "Hitchy-Koo" has fourteen new songs and sixteen new scenes and eighteen song hits, and Hitchcock's own symphonic orchestra, together with a competent cast of forty entertainers, including such well known artists as Sam Stanley, Jack Riano, Effie Trio, Artie Leeming, John Haw, Frank Cornell, Juanita Cunningham, Wood Sisters, Ruth Downe, Ollie North, Helen Stanley, Bert Leighton, Frank Miller, Baby Josephine, Ruth Washburn and the famous Sixteen Sweet Sixteens.

SIX BEST CELLARS
 Adapted from the magazine story by DeWorthy Hall and Hugh Kahler, this is the funniest thing yet written about prohibition and its dire effects. Mr. Washburn is a member of the social set in a fashionable suburban town, where prestige is based largely upon the amount of liquid refreshments there is concealed in your cellar. To replenish his fleeting stock, the star resorts to all sorts of kitchen-made makeshifts, and in disguise the recipes for them are shown. He abandons these when he hears of a "find" in the cellar of a prohibitionist auntie of his, and the complications come thick and fast.

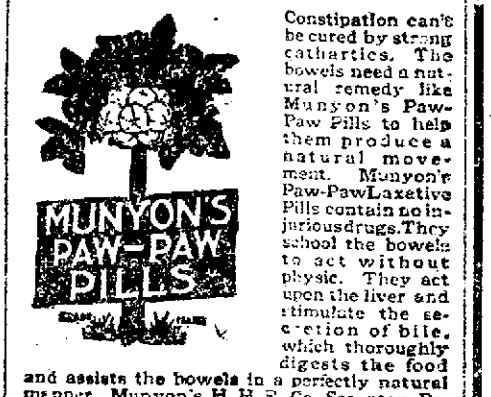

Wanda Hawley is the leading woman. The scenario was written by Elmer Harris and directed by Donald Crisp.

PIMPPLY? WELL, DON'T BE People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

AMERICAN HELD HIGH PLACE IN SOVIET RUSSIA

Was Real Power With Lenin and Trotsky in Government.

Victim of Typhus, His Funeral Was Remarkably Resplendent.

Berlin—The late John Reed, American magazine writer, newspaper correspondent and a leader of Communists in America won to a place in Soviet Russia second only to Lenin and Trotsky, M. Schwartz, of San Francisco, Socialist and labor organizer, told the correspondent of the Associated Press upon his arrival here from Moscow where he had been four months in prison following his attendance as delegate to the second congress of the Third Internationale Reed died in Moscow last autumn.

"When I first went to Moscow some friends told me John Reed was there," said Mr. Schwartz. "What of it?" I asked, for I had known Reed in Chicago when, as a big, good-natured, sincere fellow he had split the socialist party over the issue of communism, and his being in Russia didn't particularly interest me. It soon did interest me.

"Some of the Russians had asked me about the Communist party in America and I had replied we had no real, organized Communist party there, although we had communists. This, apparently, did not jibe with the impression Reed had made. That same day he came, coatless and angry, into the dining room where we were all eating and walking up to me put his hand on my shoulder and in a voice which everyone in the room could hear said: "Schwartz did you say there was no Communist party in America?" I was surprised and answered that I had not said that and had no communists but that we had no legal communist party. "I'm glad you didn't say it," Reed declared, still in a loud voice, and walked out of the room.

"Shortly after this I was given an exhibition of the power he held over the administration. I had seen him tearing through the streets with Lenin and Trotsky and Zinovieff in official automobiles, evidently on the best of terms. Then Lenin put through a resolution at the congress that only Russian, German and French should be spoken. Reed heard about this an hour or so after the resolution was passed and he came stamping into the convention in a rage. He was a dramatic figure. He wore no coat and his shirt was open at the collar. He walked down the aisle pointing his finger at Lenin, who was in the chair, in the meantime speaking rapidly in English. "English is not spoken here," Lenin shouted, rising from the chair.

"Reed continued in English, declaring there were 27 delegates who spoke English and English must be one of the languages of the convention," Lenin finally heard him through—and revoked the resolution and made English one of the official convention languages."

When Reed fell ill of typhus he was given very little attention, Mr. Schwartz said, and when at last he died his funeral was remarkably resplendent. He was buried under the Kremlin walls.

"Bolshevism was his life's work," Schwartz concluded. "He was terribly in earnest about it, and would, I believe, willingly have died for his dream of the soviet."

Best Pictures of 1920.

Picking the best pictures of the year is like selecting an All-American football team—your judgment is as good as the next fellow's. But you always enjoy reading the selections made by followers of the game, and here are the winners picked by Myron M. Stearns, motion picture editor of the weekly "Judge." The first six are Paramount pictures, the other six made by other producers:

"Humoresque", portrayal of Jewish life in America.

"The Copperhead", Lionel Barrymore in the Civil War tragedy.

"The World and His Wife", Spanish classic drama.

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde", John Barrymore in the Stevenson tale.

"The White Circle", from Stevenson's "The Pavilion on the Links."

"Why Change Your Wife?", the Cecil B. DeMille problem play.

These are the other six:

"Passion", the German-made spectacle of DuBarry.

"Way Down East", the Griffith melodrama.

"Over the Hill", from Will Carleton's story.

"A Cumberland Romance", a Realart picture.

"Polyanna", mostly Mary Pickford.

"She's a Vamp", short child comedy.

WARDEN BLOCK EAST SIDE

The Two Constant Forces the Law of Supply and Demand

[National Crop Improvement Service.]

TWO GREAT FORCES are constantly opposed to each other in every grain exchange. One group, representing the producers, exerts every effort to get a better price; while the other group, representing the manufacturers and the ultimate consumer, endeavors to buy as cheaply as possible.

These two groups, like the great parties in politics, are eternally vigilant to keep prices steady. The two forces being so nearly equally balanced, will defeat any raid essayed by either and the consequence is that when speculation is active the prices are the steadiest.

The boards of trade are merely sets of rules governing a trading place and the actions of all parties to every transaction. The real functions of the board are very little understood by those not actively engaged.

Every day the law of supply and demand regulates the current of trade and these two opposing forces, like the contestants in a tug of war, are exerting every effort to gain a temporary advantage, but they are so evenly matched that neither side can hold the market long out of line. The board of trade itself, is no more to blame for price change than to blame the thermometer for the changes of the weather and temperature.

If you should ask any broker why the price went down, he would say "on account of lack of buyers," or if it went up, "there were more buyers than sellers."

The objects of any grain exchange, as expressed in their rules, is to maintain a commercial exchange; to promote uniformity in the customs and usages of merchants; to inculcate principles of justice and equity in trade; to facilitate the speedy adjustment of business disputes; to acquire and to disseminate valuable commercial and economic information; and, generally, to secure to its members the benefits of co-operation in the furtherance of their legitimate pursuits.

The association itself does no business and it does protect its members from each other and from the world, preventing all sorts of irregular practices.

TITLED WOMEN TO HUNT BIG GAME IN AFRICA

London—An expedition to darkest Africa, which has just been organized will include three titled women. The party consisted of Duke and Duchess of Sutherland, Viscount and Viscountess Titchfield, Viscount and Viscountess Maidstone and Captain and Mrs. Gerard Leigh.

It is planned to shoot big game but an attempt will probably be made to penetrate further into the African jungle on the banks of the Blue Nile and its tributaries than any white woman has ever been known to go before.

WATCHES PLAYERS' GRADES.

Eligibility of football men at the Ohio State University will be watched over by Dr. John Wilce, football coach, next semester, by means of a chart. Each man's name and on subjects that he is taking will be on the chart, and each month the instructors will be asked to send in a report of the athlete's standing.

A seed culture union has been formed in Norway which plans to produce all the seed needed in that country at home.

SERBIAN KING AWAITS DEATH

Nearly 80 Years Old, His Hearing Fails and He Returns To Native Land To Die.

Paris—King Peter of Serbia, now 79 years old, is very feeble, a condition reports reaching Paris from Belgrade. He is totally deaf and spends most of his time in bed or in an armchair. Only the Crown Prince and Princess Hélène, his wife, and their children, whose husband was killed by the Serbs, are permitted to see him.

While the king's condition has improved the old monarch's sight is failing. He has been unable to work for some time. He is unable to walk. He has lost weight and energy since coming from his retirement. He is expected to die in the autumn.

He is being treated by a doctor outside the city. His only companion is his physician, a personal friend.

After the death of King Peter, the Austrians, in October, 1918, he returned to Belgrade with his family and entered actively into the reconstruction of his shattered country. Failing health, however, compelled him soon to leave Serbia to travel to private life. The king and queen and court were driven out of the country by the new government. Prince Alexander, son of King Peter, fled to the United States in 1919. He is now in Belgrade. He is expected to die in the autumn.

A Belgrade dispatch says that the king is expected to die in the autumn. He is now in Belgrade. He is expected to die in the autumn.

GRACE—I know most people think that moving picture actresses are such a lavish set of people that after a gown is used once or twice they throw it carelessly over their shoulder to be caught by their maid or an extra or whoever happens to be passing. I'm afraid that is not the case at all. We are all much more careful.

One star I know has a contract with one of the leading dressmakers of the country to supply her with a certain number of gowns a year and to have them all returned. I don't know what the dressmakers do with them then, whether they change them a little and call them new, or whether they sell them again as the gown once worn by Miss So-and-So, in the same way as royalty used to pass out their old things with such condescension, or whether they cut them up and use the pieces. But it seems to me a sensible sort of arrangement and an economical one.

The gowns that the company owns—and sometimes they have thousands of dollars' worth on hand for use by the extras—they use and use until they are out of style and then they hang them up as props in closets, or let them fill a shop window or a trunk or any kind of place where they will appear as pretty clothes and not as distinctive gowns in the latest style.

My own clothes I have made over for use in the next picture. A moving picture actress has to have so many changes, and it is never permissible to wear the same gown in two pictures. It would mean buying an unheard of number of gowns if one bought a new one every time it was necessary to appear in something different; so when the picture is over I generally have a dressmaker take the gown apart, and by adding a little here and subtracting there I am able to appear in a picture as a young wife, let us say, in something that doesn't remind people of the time they saw me in the same dress as an orphan daughter.

In "Male and Female" costuming was not much of a problem. As Tweenie, the servant girl, I had a gingham dress and an apron that did not mean tremendous preparation or expense, and the dress that followed, a few tiger skins draped gracefully, were not the sort of thing one could make over for wear later in a society picture.

I have some very pretty new gowns for my next picture, "Midsummer Madness." The opportunities of the piece are too good to wear even the prettiest of made-over gowns in it. But if you see me later in another picture with a little lace or silk that seems a trifle familiar, even though the gown is new, you will know that "Midsummer Madness" has passed on the pieces to a later production.

YOUNG MOTHER IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

The death of Mrs. Ethel Swern, 37, wife of George Swern occurred this morning at 2:30 o'clock at the City Hospital. Mrs. Swern's death was due to complications resulting from a recent illness. She had been seriously ill for two weeks and made a brave fight for her life.

She was born December 6, 1883, in Morristown and was the daughter of Mrs. Jane Davis. In February, 1908, she was married to George Swern, son of the late Henry O. Swern, and had made Newark her home ever since. She was a member of the Church of Christ in Morristown.

Surviving as her husband, and three children, Charles, aged 12 years, Dorothy, aged six and Robert, three weeks old. Her mother, Mrs. Jane Davis and two brothers, John and Rollin of Morristown also survive.

The body was removed to the Bradley establishment and prepared for burial and taken to the home, 208 North Cedar street.

Private funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home. Rev. J. H. McGavney, pastor of the Central Church of Christ will officiate at the services and burial will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

MARTINSBURG.
The "Lincoln Highway" Sunday school contest in the Presbyterian-Methodist federated schools has closed. The young people's class, taught by Miss Margaret McCullough won in the race across the continent, and was banqueted by the school in the town hall Saturday night. One hundred and twenty suppers were served. Excellent music was rendered by the orchestra composed of Mrs. C. C. Hunt, Lester Hunt, Wayne Hunt, G. C. Larson, Edwin Larson and Gail Divan.

The series of gospel meetings in the Baptist church will close this week. The present pastor, Rev. Mr. Richmond is assisted by Rev. Mr. Hamman of Pittsburgh, and Miss Scott of New Castle.

An epidemic of mumps has broken out in this community. A number of school children are suffering with the disease.

The Gambier high school basketball team will come here Saturday night for a contest with the local high school. The boys are seeking revenge for the defeat they suffered at Gambier Saturday night.

Mrs. T. L. Beatty returned Sunday from Black Run where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stratton. Mr. and Mrs. Al Dodd of Wyandotte, Mich. were guests of relatives here.

Mrs. D. T. Allen is quite ill.

Even the fellow who deliberately goes out looking for trouble may be an artful dodger.

The Beautiful Figure.
Nature always aims at perfection in all that she undertakes, and when the human factor intervenes, it is only to mar the perfection. It is the result of the exercise of what might be called the "art of living" that we have been able to achieve the example of a woman with a flat chest and a large bust. No woman with a flat chest can lay claim to any beauty of figure. In most cases, she has to put on a corset to carry out the plan of nature. But all claim for beauty must not be based on the hollow chest. The flatness of the chest may be overcome by scientific exercise of the lungs, which will also develop the pectoral or chest muscles, which cover the ribs in front. The combined effect of this development and filling out, both from within and without, is often very considerable and very astonishing.

It is a question of deep breathing in conjunction with especially applied exercises. Special deep breathing alone will result in a very great improvement. Special foods also help to develop. If one is thin a cup of hot cocoa, a glass of warm milk and a tablespoon of olive oil will help to put on the desired flesh. All three of these can be taken in as large quantities as will agree with one. But one should only take what the stomach will stand without distress. Exercise will also help the flat chest.

Stand before an open window or on a porch and, if possible, wear loose clothing. Breathe twelve times, as deeply as possible, inhaling through the nose and exhaling through the mouth. Raise the elbows as near a level with the shoulders as possible and reach and stretch back until the elbows meet.

Everyday Etiquette
"Is it good form for a young married man to wear his house coat when entertaining men and women guests?" asked Roginaki.
"A man should only wear his house coat when with his family alone or with a limited number of intimate friends. If ladies are present it is very improper," said his father.
One-half the world complaining that it has no work, doesn't know that the other half complains because it has too much.

The Man Who Shot the Fox

By Sir Gilbert K. Chesterton

Is a son under obligation to right the wrongs of his father? Suppose you discovered the fortune your father left you belonged, morally, if not legally, to another. Would you—if you were Sir Arthur—pass on the title to a whole village for the sake of the honor of the family? Would you, if you were Martin Irving, live, in distress, alone with his black joke of being right?

I Keep Going to Jail

By Walt Mason

"I am weary and dejected; there is sorrow in my brow; every hour I am inspected by the minions of the law. They inspect me when I'm going, they inspect me when I come, seeing that I've not been stowing in my clothes illicit rum. They inspect my books and papers, and my ink and sealing wax, making sure I've played no capers with the well-known income tax. Oh, they pinch me every morning, and in court I stand in line, and I draw a solemn warning when I do not get a fine." Read why Walt Mason asks for Laws as simple as the Ten Commandments.

Snow-Blind

By Arthur Stringer

Sightless, she awakened—in the bleak outpost of Alba Laird, outlawed bootlegger. One hand pulled away her hat—another her great-coat—more long coppery fingers tore away her waist. Then came her beseeching cry thru the tumult of drunken laughter. How far could that cry go back through the years? Could it awaken the sleeping ghosts of a degraded man's youth? Does the call of one's race ever die? Arthur Stringer gives his answer in Snow-Blind.

PARIS ACCEPTS GERMAN MUSIC WITHOUT PROTEST

Paris—An American conductor, Weston Gales, of New York, gave Paris her first solid Wagnerian program of overtures recently when he was accorded the honor of directing the Lamoureux orchestra.

Paris now seems to accept German music without protest although within a month squads of police guarded the government supported opera when the Walkure, the first Wagnerian production sung there since the war, was given.

Mr. Gales founded and conducted for four years the Detroit Symphony orchestra. His Paris program comprised the "Rienzi," "Flying Dutchman" and "Tannhauser" overtures and the prelude from "Lohengrin," "Parsifal," "Tristan and Isolde" and "The Meister singer."

IT IS UNPROFITABLE TO COUNTERFEIT CURRENCY

Budapest—The value of Austro-Hungarian crowns and Polish marks is so low here that an enterprising band which undertook to counterfeit them abandoned the effort as unprofitable. When captured by the police they said the cost of producing the notes exceeded their face value.

When surprised by the authorities they were engaged in printing spurious Austro-Hungarian currency.

COLD CARRIED OUT OF SOIL BY TILE

The drainage is an important means of warming the soil in the spring and thus making it fit for use, say experienced farmers.

F. L. Allen of Trumbull county reports having taken the temperature of rain water many times as it fell and then again as it emerged from the drain tile. The drainage water was 20 degrees Fahrenheit colder than the original rain water.

At this rate, specialists say that each inch of rainfall in the spring might be expected to raise the average temperature of the top 30 inches of soil 2.8 degrees Fahrenheit. The greater part of this heat would be left in the upper areas of the soil, thus raising its temperature considerably more than the average of 2.8 degrees.

Mr. Allen also points out that snow in the spring melts more rapidly on drained than undrained land. This he believes is due to the warmer temperature of the tiled soil.

OVER 6,000 PERSONS ATTEND FARMERS' WEEK

With over 6,000 farmers registered, attendance records were once more broken during the Farmers' Week program at the Ohio State University, held from January 21 to February 4. The attendance this year was over 100 more than last year, when 5,000 persons were registered. Over 1,100 persons attended this year than last, however. Last year 300 boys and girls winning free trips to Farmers' Week and 350 students remaining between semesters for the event were registered.

A special program was arranged for the youngsters last fall and few students were registered this year.

In 1915 when the first program was given 140 persons were registered; 1914, 770; 1915, 1,457; 1916, 2,802; 1917, 4,046; 1918, 2,697; 1919, 4,802; 1920, 5,691.

It is sometimes embarrassing to brag about what you are going to do tomorrow. Somebody might ask you what you did yesterday.

TRADED FOR A LOT. WIFE CHOOSES TO KEEP THE BARGAIN

Mrs. Cora Johnson.

That her husband, Enoch Johnson, traded her to Burger Peterson of Rockford, Ill., for a vacant lot, was the startling statement made in a New York court by Mrs. Cora Johnson. And to make the situation doubly unusual, when asked by the judge which man she preferred, she chose Peterson. She declared Johnson forced her to work from 5:30 a. m. until late at night and that Peterson treats her with more consideration.

WOMEN SEEK TO AVOID JURY DUTY

Many Excuses Are Offered
When Fair Sex Is Summoned to Court.

Men Defendants Not Anxious to Have Women Sit for Judgment.

London—Excuses offered by women who for the first time have just been called to sit as jurors in Old Bailey, the world's most famous criminal court, excited a good deal of laughter in that usually serious place.

Twenty-four women were summoned for jury service in criminal cases and mixed juries were formed with in at least one case, a woman serving as forewoman. The charges including murder, arson and manslaughter.

The women appeared quite as anxious as men to avoid service on the juries.

"I'm too nervous," was the plea of one.

"I'm not strong-minded enough,"
said another. She was excused.

Others pleaded inability to leave housework, shopping, business, care of babies or sought to evade service on the ground of their own illness or that of members of their families.

"I know one thing we women will do," said the jurywoman after sitting in the court for a half-hour. "We will make the lawyers wear clean wigs and have better manners."

Others after their first appearance in the jury-box, made suggestions that women jurors should be compensated for disruption of their household routine and that "light refreshments" should be served during the afternoon court sessions.

Those in the courtrooms seemed to regard the spectacle of women telling their true ages, in most cases without noticeable hesitation, the most surprising part of the novel procedure. One was eight, three and was excused.

While in the cases heard during the opening day, the majority of the verdicts were "not guilty," litigants, both men and women, and their counsel seemed to be reluctant to have women sit in judgment in their cases. It was noticeable that men defendants in particular sought, through repeated challenges, to prevent their being seated as jurors.

"Men know women can't be hoodwinked and bamboozled so easily—they are too likely to overlook technicalities and go to essentials—that's the reason they don't want us," said one woman who had been challenged and excused.

Women jurors soon will be called to decide libel actions, breach of promise suits, others for false imprisonment, and assault in the London Law Courts and also will make their first appearance as jurors in the Divorce Court.

They have been sitting as jurors in some of the counties in England for some months.

ITALIAN WILL TRY TO GROW SWEET POTATOES

Rome—Professor Boni, archaeologist and director of excavations on the Palatine is going to make another effort to grow sweet potatoes in Italy. He has just received a lot of seed potatoes from the United States agricultural department.

Whenever sweet potatoes have been planted in Italy, they have reverted to ordinary potatoes after a few years.

Professor Boni hopes to be able to keep them to their true type. He says that old manuscripts prove that the ancient Romans grew them.

tario city has installed taps on many of

MONOCLE ORDER BRINGS PROTEST

German Officers Heap Abuse On Cabinet Minister Responsible For Ban On Eye-Glass.

Berlin—An order forbidding the wearing of the monocle by officers and members of the Security police, issued by the prussian minister of the interior, has brought down upon the minister a veritable avalanche of abuse. It also has evoked reams of argument in favor of the ancient institution of the single eye glass.

The minister described the wearing of the monocle as "an unbecoming habit," and attributed it to the vanity of officers rather than to any weakness of the eye.

His critics accuse him of being defec-ent in anatomical knowledge, of making a grandstand play to the proletariat, and of a malicious attempt to overthrow an old, honored, and common German institution.

A man's two eyes are very seldom of equal soundness, it is pointed out, and the use of spectacles might injure a sound eye while aiding the weak member. Therefore, it is argued, the custom is well established on physical grounds.

The majority of the commentators scornfully reject the minister's reasons for the order—that the monocle is an affectation and smacks of monarchial times. They argue that the one eyeglass custom prevails in such democratic countries as England and even to some extent in America.

One participant in the fray thinks the monocle wearer is not getting a square deal. Any man who can manage to hold a round piece of glass between his eye and brow and his cheek bone ought to be rewarded with a medal of merit for exceptional skill, instead of being reprimanded.

NEW LEGUME GIVES GOOD YIELDS AS OHIO CROP

Will the new legume, annual white sweet clover, recently discovered by farm crops specialists, be satisfactory for Ohio conditions?

An acre of this new legume at the Ohio Experiment Station produced
5,379 pounds of air-dried hay in 183 days. The seed was sown in 30 inch rows at the rate of 2 1/2 pounds per acre.

The test shows that the plant has value as an emergency crop and that it will produce seed in Ohio of an average season if planted early. An effort is being made at the Ohio Experiment Station to secure strains that will mature from 140 to 150 days for northern Ohio.

The annual sweet clover is believed to have originally come from Alabama.
Its discovery being accredited to H. D.
Hughes, of the Iowa Experiment Station.

Tests of the new legume are being conducted annually in many parts of the United States.

ERECTS MEMORIAL TO LOST STATES

Hungary Perpetuates Memory of Provinces Taken From Her By Peace Pact.

Budapest—The four irrendentist monuments unveiled here on January 17 were erected by the League for Territorial Integrity without the government's official participation. The symbolic statues were the work of the best Hungarian sculptors.

Transylvania is symbolized by a naked, handcuffed, prostrate figure whose chains are being broken by the Mythological Magyar hero Czaba. North Hungary is represented by a crucified swooning woman called "Hungaria." A small slovak boy is embracing her feet.

West Hungary is symbolized by a weeping youth imploring a Magyar warlord who is standing one side with a sword.
South Hungary is personified by a beautiful German girl looking defiantly toward the enemy and running to her Magyar sweetheart.

The four monuments at Budapest are in memory of the "Lost provinces" separated from Hungary by the peace treaty. Eighty-thousand witnessed their unveiling and many knelt in the streets and vowed to help recover the sections taken from Hungary.

CHINESE PRESIDENT URGES UNITED NATION

Peking—President Hsu Shi Chang has issued a mandate calling the attention of the people to the election of a representative of China as a member of the Council of the League of Nations and expressing the wish that the Chinese would show their appreciation of this by "sinking their differences and working together for the reunion of the country." He adds: "Our hope is that we can consolidate the foundation of the country forever and at the same time be able to do our part in offeting universal peace in the world."
